Gratuity.

Read again Proceedings of Government, in the Pension Department, dated 29th March 1877, No. 177.

Read also the following letter from E. J. SINKINSON, Esq., Officiating Under Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Simla, 29th May 1877, No. 796:—

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 178 (Gratuity), dated 29th March 1877, reporting that the Government of Madras has sanctioned the grant of an invalid gratuity of Rupees 320 to P. Sashachalam, late Gumastah, Revenue Settlement Office, Kistna District, calculated on the rate of pay drawn by him previous to the abolition of his former appointment instead of upon the pay received by him at the date of his actual retirement; and requesting a decision on the objection raised by the Accountant-General, Madras, to the grant.

2. In reply, I am directed to state that, under Sections 59 (a) and 69 (a) of the Civil Pension Code, P. Sashachalam was entitled to a gratuity of Rupees 200 only, i.e., eight months' pay at the rate last received by him; but, as this would be less than Rupees 280, which he might have claimed when his appointment was abolished in May 1874, he is, under Section 51 of the Civil Pension Code, entitled to a gratuity of Rupees 280. The Accountant-General, Madras, has correctly taken exception to the grant of a gratuity of Rupees 320 to P. Sashachalam, and I am to request that you will be good enough to move His Grace the Governor of Madras in Council to revise the grant.

ORDER THEREON, 12th June 1877, No. 293.

Communicated to the Accountant-General in continuation of G.O., No. 177, dated 29th March 1877.

2. G.O., No. 49, dated 8th February 1877, will be considered to be cancelled. In accordance with the decision of the Government of India, P. Sashachalam, late Gumastah, Revenue Settlement Office, Kistna District, is granted a compensation gratuity of Rupees 280, under Sections 50, 51, and 59 (a) of the Civil Pension Code (3rd Edition).

Financial Department Sir

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 178 (Gratuity) dated 29th March 1877, reporting that the Government of Madras has sanctioned the grant of an invalid gratuity of Rs 320 to P. Sashachalam, late Gunastah, Revenue Settlement Office, Kistna District, — calculated on the rate of pay drawn by him previous to the abolition of his former appointment instead of upon the pay received by him at the date of his actual retirement; and requesting a decision on the objection raised by the Accountant General, Madras, to the grant.

2. In reply I am directed to state that under sections 57 (a) and 69 (2) of the Civil Pension Code P. Sashachalam was entitled to a gratuity of Rs. 200 only i.e. eight months pay at the rate last received by him; but as this would be less than Rs. 280 which he might have claimed when his appointment was abolished in May 1874, he is under Section 57 of the Civil Pension Code entitled to a gratuity of
