To,

The Salt Muteadi

Gundapur.

Your Azgi N^o 68 has been gone through. You report after due enquiry that Kolkar Dadda Chikku was found sleeping while on guard in the Treasury of your Office. It appears that this Kolkar slept again while he was on guard although he was last year fined 1 Rupee for having absented himself from his duty of guarding the Kotar, and warned that repetition of a similar neglect of duty would result in his dismissal from his appointment. As this man has twice neglected his duty as a guard, & if leniency is shown to such persons by allowing them to remain in their appointments, it will be offering them an incentive to be more careless hereafter. Considering it therefore advisable to dispense with the services of this servant it is ordered that he be dismissed. You will inform this to the said Kolkar and recommend a fit person in his place.

Dated

Dated 28th February Sudi 1252

Order issued by J. Blane Esq. Principal Collector of Canara to Govindaya Tahildar of Kundapur Taluq.

Your Arzi N^o 749 and 782 respectively have been perused. With reference to the petition presented by Chikkoo Kolkar of the Salt depot at Anagalli praying that he may be reinstated in his post, from which he has been dismissed in consequence of his having been found sleeping at the time when he should have been on the watch, you recommend that the said Kolkar may be reinstated and transferred to some other depot. Considering the period for which the said person has been out of employ which alone seems to be an adequate punishment, he will be reinstated and transferred to Baindur depot as recommended by you. This arrangement will accordingly be entered in the Panawad. The person is to be strictly informed that no leniency whatever will be shown to him in future for similar neglect of his duty. There is no objection to your recommending Kolkar Ranga referred to in your Arzi N^o 782 when a vacancy may occur.

Dated 5th June Sudi 1252.

Reply

The reasons of terminations of several posts which were held by the applicant Soravally Chikku are inserted in the 11th column of the 3^d page of the service book and the same is herewith returned.

The applicant's name appears to have been entered by mistake as Jaces instead of Chikka in the Reno's list of 1866. He is known by the name of Chikka only.
