permanent vacancy. On June 2nd 1851 the Court determined that Sept 29th Feb. 1852 and the present applicant during the remaining portion of the Acting term. The party concerned should notify the undersigned in the future in the shape of the application.

Sept 3rd 1852 The applicant's name does not appear in the list submitted in May 1852 as he had not then been confirmed in the Apostolic Ministry.

Sept 4th 1852 The return of 1852 of 1860 shows 1st Aug 1852 as the date of Applicant's entry in the General record, the previous return shows 1st Feb.

March 1851 as the date of his entry in the same and 1st Aug 1852 as the date of his confirmation and his post while the applicant was shown 1st March as the date of entry. As stated above, the applicant was appointed to act on the 1st March 1851 and was confirmed on the 1st Aug 1852 as General Statute and the discrepancy in the 3 returns has arisen from a misapprehension as to the meaning of the Applicant's "date of entry" and "date of confirmation"; the one having been taken to mean the date of his appointment even though it be acting and the other having been construed to mean the date of appointment absolutely.

Sept 5th 1852 The applicant was declared by the Clerk during the religious assembly of the trustees service and was consequently made a member. No official record has been shown why he should be retained for some months longer. Receipt that he would there be entitled to
