Pension.

Read the following papers:—

From the Collector of Ganjam, dated 19th April 1877.
„ Officiating Deputy Accountant-General, dated 19th June 1877, No. 319.

ORDER THEREON, 2nd July 1877, No. 340.

The total qualifying service of Paidipani Subbarayudu, late a Compositor in the Collector's Press establishment, Ganjam, is nineteen years, seven months, and sixteen days. From the 13th March 1857 to the 30th April 1860 he is shown in the history of service to have been paid at Rupees 10 per mensem, instead of at Rupees 12, the sanctioned pay of his appointment. There is nothing on record to explain the discrepancy, but a contemporary employé states that the Collector then in charge ordered the deduction of Rupees 2 till the applicant, who was newly appointed a Compositor, was thoroughly up to his work. As, however, he is shown for the period in question in the Annual Returns on record in the Audit Office to have been paid Rupees 12 and not Rupees 10, the Government, agreeing with the Accountant-General, resolve to reckon the service as superior.

2. It is, moreover, observed that on the abolition of his appointment of Rupees 20 in March 1874, sixteen years, nine months, and eighteen days' service being then to his credit, he was entitled to a one-third pension of Rupees 6-10-8; but that in lieu thereof he had again accepted service in an appointment carrying with it a reduced salary of Rupees 15 per mensem. This service lasted two years and ten months. Accordingly, now on his retirement, he has become entitled to a one-third pension of Rupees 5-11-6, or of a smaller amount than that admissible to him before.

3. As, however, provision is made in the Code for cases like the present, His Grace the Governor in Council is pleased to extend to P. Subbarayudu the benefit of the section (51), and accordingly grants him, under Sections 51, 59 (b), and 60, the higher rate of pension (superannuation) of Rupees 6-10-8, payable from the 1st February 1877.

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL.

CERTIFIED that (subject to the remarks below recorded) qualifying service in { inferior } grades has been duly proved for 19 years 7 months and 18 days; and that a { pension } not exceeding Rs. 5-11-6 per mensem is admissible under Section 60 of the Civil Pension Code. (The calculations have been duly verified.) But as the applicant for his service of 16 years 9 months and 18 days commencing from 13th March 1857 to 31st March 1874 was entitled to a pension of Rs 6-10-8 per mensem then, and which he would have had, had he not then accepted another appointment under Government when the post of Compositor on 20th which he held was abolished, that amount is admissible to him now under Section 51 of the Civil Pension Code.

Applicants service from 13th March 1857 to 30th April 1860 is reckoned as superior as in the Annual Returns on record in this Office he is shown as Compositor not on 10th but on 12th the sanctioned pay of the post.

In the office copies of the Annual Returns and of the Pay ~~off~~ bills there appears a remark to the effect that only 10 Rs were paid out of the amount of Rs 12 sanctioned for the post, the difference of Rs 2 being shown under stoppages. There is nothing on records to show the cause of this deduction; but the Head compositor who was his contemporary says that in consequence of the applicant having been then newly put in the Press department, Mr. Knowlton the then Collector ordered the payment of only post (Rs 10) of the salary until he thoroughly acquainted himself with the work.
