Gratuities.

Read the following papers:—

From the Collector of Chingleput, dated 23rd May 1877, Nos. 99 and 100.
" Accountant-General, dated 1st June 1877, No. 240.

ORDER THEREON, 2nd July 1877, No. 343.

The Collector of Chingleput requests that gratuities may be allotted to the following two men whose cases are particularized below:—

- (1). P. Mahomed Sillar, late a second-class Constable of the Chingleput Police Force, served from 1st May 1864 to 24th December 1873, or for nine years, seven months, and twenty-four days. For this service he was allowed by G.O., No. 356, dated 20th June 1874, a gratuity of Rupees 63, equal to nine months' pay, under Section 104, Scale A, of the Civil Pension Code (second edition). Application is now made for the grant to him of a separate gratuity for his service as Revenue Peon in the same district for thirteen years, three months, and twenty-nine days, or from 9th June 1847 to 7th October 1860, when he lost his appointment through the general revision of Taluq Establishments by Mr. Pelly.
- (2). S. Omer Khan, late a Deputy Constable of the Chingleput Police Force, served from 8th October 1860 to 30th April 1870, or for nine years, six months, and twenty-four days, and for which service he was allowed by G.O., No. 394, dated 19th August 1870, a gratuity of Rupees 94-8-0, equal to nine months' pay, under Section 1 of the Police Superannuation Fund Rules. Application is now made for the grant to him also of a separate gratuity for his service as a Revenue Peon in the same district for twenty-two years, one month, and one day, or (excluding breaks) from 1st June 1838 to 7th October 1860, when he also lost his appointment from the same cause.

2. The Accountant-General reporting on the above cases states that they are not entitled to the gratuities sought, as, under Section 112 of the Civil Pension Code (third edition), it was optional with them to receive in lieu of the gratuities granted under Chapter XXI of the Code such gratuities as were admissible under the ordinary rules, but that inasmuch as the former or Police gratuities exceeded in amount those admissible under the ordinary rules, they naturally refused to exercise their option.

3. The Government observe that these remarks apply so far as Mahomed Sillar is concerned. Had he preferred to count the whole of his mixed service of twenty-two years, eleven months, and twenty-three days as inferior and elected for a gratuity, under Sections 65 and 66 of the Code, he would have received only Rupees 42, equal to six months' pay. This amount is also all that he would have been entitled to according to the Superannuation Fund Rules under which he served.

4. Further in regard to Omer Khan he was precluded from electing the ordinary rules as his retirement from the public service dates from April 1870, which was before the issue of the Government of India

* No. 2091, dated 19th July 1871.

Resolution* under which the Accountant-General claims that he should have exercised the option in choosing his gratuity.

If however he had elected for his mixed service of thirty-one years, seven months, and twenty-five days to be paid a gratuity under the Superannuation Fund Rules he would still have been entitled to only six months' pay, or Rupees 63, as he was discharged on a medical certificate, and not in consequence of reduction of establishment.

5. As from the above it appears that the interests of P. Mahomed Sillar and Omer Khan have been fully consulted in the gratuities already granted to them, His Grace the Governor in Council declines to entertain the present applications submitted in their behalf.

Report of the Accountant General

The undersigned has the honor to submit two applications for gratuity forwarded by the Collector of Chingleput on behalf of Ammerkhan and Mahomed Sillar late Constables in the Police Department and to report that the applicants are not entitled to a separate gratuity for their revenue service.

Under section 112 of the Civil Pension Code they should have been allowed option of receiving in lieu of the gratuities granted to them under Chapter ~~XXI~~ of that Code such gratuities as were admissible to them under the ordinary rules, but, inasmuch as the police gratuities, granted to them, exceeded the amount of the gratuities admissible under the ordinary rules, they of course would have refused to exercise such an option.

 - - - Accountant General of 1 June 1877 No. 240.

Order sanction 2nd July 1877 No. 343.

The Collector of Chingapat requests that gratuities may be allotted to the following two men whose cases are particularised below:-

1. P. Abraham Sillay
 late a 2nd Class Constable of the Chingapat Police Force, engaged from 1 May 1864 to 24 Dec 1873; for 9. 7. 24; and for which service he was allowed by G.O. No. 356 dated 20 June 1874 a gratuity of Rs 63, equal to nine months pay, under Section 104, Scale A of the C.P.C. (2nd Edition)

Application

Application is now made for the grant to him of a separate gratuity for his service as Revenue Don in the same district for 13. 3. 29, or from 9 June 1847 to 7 Oct. 1860, when he lost his appointment through the general revision of Taluk establishments by Mr. Pelly.

(2) S. Omesh Khan, late a Deputy Constable of the Chinglipoor Police Force served from 8 Oct. 1860 to 30 April 1870, or for 9. 6. 24, and for which service he was allowed by G.O. No. 394 dated 19 Aug.
1870 a gratuity of Rs 94. 8. 0 equal to nine months' pay, under Sec. 1 of the Police Superannuation Fund Rules.
Application is now made for the grant to him also

7

212
of a separate gratuity for his service as a Revenue Don in the same district for 22. 1. 1, or (excluding breaks) from 1 June 1838 to 7 Oct. 1860, when he also lost his appointment from the same cause.
2. The Accountant General reporting on the above cases states that they are not entitled to the gratuities sought as under Sec. 112 of the C. P. C. (3. 1. 50) it was optional with them to receive in lieu of the gratuities granted under Chapter XXI of the Code such gratuities as were admissible under the ordinary rules, but that inasmuch as the former Police gratuities exceeded in amount those admissible under

under the ordinary rules they naturally refused to exercise their option.

3. The Govt observe that these remarks apply as far as Dusham Sillas is concerned. Had he preferred to count the whole of his mixed service of 22. 11. 23 as inferior and elected for a gratuity under Sections 65 & 66 of the Code, he would have received only Rs 42, equal to six months pay. This amount is also all that he would have been entitled to according to the Superannuation Fund Rules, under which he served.

4. Further
But in regard to Guner Khan, he was precluded

N^o 2091 of 19 July 1871 precluded from electing the ordinary rules as his retirement from the public service dates from April 1870, which was before the issue of the Govt of India Resolution, under which the Secretariat General claimed ^{that} he should have exercised the option in choosing his gratuity. If however he had ~~been~~ elected for his mixed service of 31. 7. 25 to be paid a gratuity under the Superannuation Fund Rules he would ^{still} have been entitled to only six months pay, or Rs 63, as he was discharged on a medical certificate, and not in consequence of reduction of establishment.
