,, Offg. Assistant to the Accountant-General, dated 15*th September* 1877, No. 695.

ORDER THEREON, 25th September 1877, No. 516.

Under Sections 50 and 59 (a) of the Civil Pension Code (3rd Edition) the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Danta Adinarayana, late Classifier, Revenue Settlement Department, Kistna District, a compensation gratuity of Rupees (114) one hundred and fourteen, or six months' pay, to which he is entitled in consideration of his qualifying superior service of six years, one month, and five days.

2. It is observed that the applicant, though promoted to an appointment worth 20 Rupees per mensem, was not allowed to draw that pay, but received only Rupees 19 per mensem till his retirement owing to his having been an unpassed candidate. The latter amount has, therefore, been taken as the pay regulating his gratuity.

3. The irregularity of this proceeding will be considered in the Revenue Department.

4. The applicant being dead, the gratuity, under Section 92, Rule 2, is made payable to the parties who possess the certificate of heirship.

SIR,

I have the honor to enclose herewith an application for gratuity on behalf of Dantu Adinarayana late Classifier in the Kistna Settlement party with the man's Service Register and request that the same may be submitted for the favorable consideration of Government—

2. M. Subbarau states in his arzi of the 28th Ultimo that he received an application dated 26th October 1876 from Dantu-Adinarayana's wife praying that in consequence of the death of her husband the gratuity due to him may be made payable to her. I request therefore that the same may be represented to Governm. and their Sanction obtained if you see no objection—

3. The marks for personal identification entered in the 1st sheet of the Service Register

2. D. Adinarayanah who was thrown out of employ at the end of September 1873 applied for gratuity on the 23d March 1875, but died subsequently on the 21st September 1876. During the interval, he was only able to obtain an acting appointment

I beg to forward herewith the Arzi received from Dantu Adinarayana's wife from which it will appear that her husband died on the 24th September 1876.

In July 1875 the Director passed a Proceedings to the Deputy Director requesting him to submit a list of hands thrown out in the reduction of the Establishment in the Kistna Settlement Party to the Collectors of Kistna, Godavery and Nellore with a view to their being provided for in their Establishments. And this Adinarayana being one of those included in the list I thought it better to delay the preparation of the Application for gratuity for him as I did in the case of Garnepudi Perayya, and Pavuluri Purushottam who had longer services than himself.

In June 1876 Adinarayana wrote me a letter stating that he did not as yet get any footing in the Government Service; that he had been employed on correction of Demarcation work by the Head Assistant Collector in the Bezwada Taluq on condition of his being paid by the ryots and that that work also came to an end and requesting that as Garnepudi Perayya, and Pavuluri Purushottam whose services were dispensed with along with his having died he may at least be recommended for gratuity. On receipt of this letter I prepared the necessary papers and forwarded them on, on the 20th July to Adinarayana Subsequently, that is, on the 31st July he wrote another letter informing me that he was sick, that he could not attend the Hospital in Masulipatam and that he would go to the Medical Officer at Guntoor to obtain the Certificate &ca of that Officer were written to on the subject. I accordingly wrote to him. In pursuance of ~~which~~ this he proceeded to Guntoor procured the Certificate and forwarded it with other papers to me on the 30th August. I examined them all & submitted them to the Deputy Director on the 16th September with Arzi No 128.

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL.

Certified that ~~(subject to the remarks below recorded)~~ qualifying service in {~~inferior~~ superior} grades has been duly proved for — 6 — years — 1 — months ~~and~~ 5 — days; and that a Compensation {~~pension~~ gratuity} not exceeding Rs. 114 — " — , — " — , is admissible under Section 59(a) of the Civil Pension Code. (The calculations have been duly verified.) As the Applicant ever since his promotion to 20 Rs was not allowed that pay, but was regularly allowed only 19 Rs till his retirement owing to his having been an unpassed candidate, the latter amount has been taken as the pay regulating the gratuity –

The cause of long delay in the Submission of this Application has been explained by the Acting Head Gumasta in charge Kristna Party.

The explanation required under rule 1 Section 50 of the Code has been afforded in the 3rd Page of the Register of Application –

The Applicant is reported to have died on the 24th September 1876 i.e. nearly 4 months after his application to be recommended for a gratuity – and the Director of Revenue Settlement states that the holders of the Certificate which is herewith accompanying (to be returned to the Director of Revenue Settlement when no longer required) appear entitled to receive the money due to the deceased applicant.
