GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

26th September 1877, No. 518.

Pension.

Read again Proceedings of Government in the Pension Department, dated 21st August 1877, No. 454.

Read also the following letter from Colonel C. S. HEARN, Inspector-General of Police, to the Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 5th September 1877, No. 3984:—

I have the honor to state, with reference to G.O., No. 454, dated 21st August 1877, that on the receipt of G.O., No. 337, dated 28th June 1877, Sergeant Boyle was again brought on the strength of the Madras Town Police Force from the 1st July 1877 but that back pay has not been drawn for him from the 23rd March to 30th June 1877 because full pay was drawn by the permanent incumbent appointed in his place during that period.

2. I would observe, with reference to paragraph 2 of G.O., No. 386, dated 24th July 1877, that the action in the Police Department was under the sanction of G.O., No. 700, dated 19th March 1877, all the papers having previously been submitted to Government. The case commenced with an act of gross misconduct on the part of Sergeant Boyle, who appeared before the Staff Officer and Superintendent of Details, Fort St. George, in a state of liquor and behaved in a most violent and outrageous manner. The Staff Officer considered that Boyle had rendered himself liable to loss of pension by his misconduct, but contented himself with reporting him for punishment to the Commissioner of Police. If he now receives pay for the period of non-employment he will have escaped punishment altogether.

ORDER THEREON, 26th September 1877, No. 518.

Under the circumstances this case will be disposed of in accordance with the Accountant-General's suggestion, paragraph 3 of his letter, 11th July 1877 (G.O., 24th July 1877, No. 386).

2. Retrospective leave without pay for the period Sergeant Boyle was out of employ is granted accordingly.
