I have the honor to report that Police Constable Nadimuthu, for whom a gratuity of Rupees 112 was sanctioned in G.O., dated 1st June 1875, No. 279, died before receipt of the order. The amount was paid, without Government sanction, to his heir by the Collector of Tanjore more than one year after the Constable's death. This office took objection to the payment under Section 88, Rule 2, of the Civil Pension Code, and directed the recovery of the amount pending the required sanction. The Treasury Officer states that he is unable to effect recovery from the heir, and in these circumstances I request that Government will be pleased to ratify the payment made.

Referred to the Collector of Tanjore for report.

FORT ST. GEORGE,
1st December 1876.

(Signed) H. B. GRIGG,
Acting Under Secretary.

From H. S. THOMAS, Esq., Collector of Tanjore, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Vallam, 16th January 1877, No. 174.

With reference to the Government endorsement, dated 1st December 1876, No. 849, on the letter from the Accountant-General, dated 27th November last, No. 558, I have the honor to report that Government have in their Order, dated 1st June 1875, No. 279, sanctioned a gratuity of Rupees 112 to Police Constable Nadimuthu, but, the individual having died before receiving the payment of the amount of gratuity, it was through inadvertence paid without Government sanction to his heir (son) by the Treasury Deputy Collector more than one year after the gratuitant's death. After the receipt of the objection statement from the Accountant-General, every endeavour was made to effect recovery of the said amount; but, owing to the payee having already spent the amount and having no other property from which the amount could be recovered, the fact was intimated to the Accountant-General.

2. I have the honor, therefore, to request that Government will be pleased to accord their sanction for the adjustment of the amount in question.
