This man passed 10th 18 as "Turnkey". This would be technically Superior Service under Sec 41 Civil Pension Code, but it is quite evident that Section 1 was never intended to apply to Europeans at all. The man was transferred from Mounted Police to Army under E.O. full dep. no 674 of May 10th 1864. The term "Turnkey" was just a chance nomenclature, and therefore no idea of degrading the man.

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL.

No 729

Certified that (subject to the remarks below recorded) qualifying service in {superior} grades has been duly proved for 14 years 10 months and 17 days; and that an invalid {pension} gratuity not exceeding Rs. 720 --- equal to --- is admissible under Section 59(b) of the Civil Pension Code. The ulations have been duly verified.

But should Government with reference to the explanation afforded in the letter of the Inspector General of Jails No 229 of 25th July 1877 and to the remark in the 3rd page of the register to the effect that he was to be converted to the service of Turnkey as superior though in section 41 of the Code he is held as inferior, and to grant a pension in lieu of a gratuity for his service of 15 and odd years, then an invalid pension not exceeding Rupees 20 --- per mensem will become admissible under section 59(b) of the Civil Pension Code subject to confirmation of the grant by the Government of India.

I should remark that the Inspector General of Jails incorrectly states that the applicant "was transferred from the Madras Mounted Police to the Jail Department on promotion" and that "the designation of warder in the Penitentiary was then (i.e. in 1866-67) called Turnkey". The applicant received the same rate of pay for more than 10 months after his transfer to the Jail Department and the history of his service as well as the registers show that he held the situation of Turnkey from 14th July 1866 to August 31st 1867 and that of warder from June 1st 1867.

The applicant was retained in service till 30th June last the date on which the medical certificate of unfitness was received though it was dated 16th idem. The applicant having drawn pay till 30th June last his pension if sanctioned should be paid from 1st July following.
