From Colonel C. S. HEARN, Inspector-General of Police, to the Under Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 27th September 1877, No. 4324.

With reference to your official memorandum, No. 24 of the 19th instant, I have the honor to state that all cases of pensions and gratuities of Police officers on pay above Rs. 20 monthly, coming under the operation of the Uncovenanted Civil Service rules, are invariably sent through the Accountant-General, according to section 77 of the Civil Pension Code.

2. Those of the constabulary, coming under the special rules for Police in the code, who have no previous service in other departments of Government and whose pensions or gratuities are admissible under the strict letter of the rules, are sent direct to the Government according to section 115 of the Pension Code and G.O., No. 663, dated 26th August 1872, as the Accountant-General has no means of verifying their service.

3. There is no objection to all Police cases without distinction being sent through the Accountant-General in future if such a course is considered desirable.

opposed to the provisions of Sec. 77 of the Civil Rights
