GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

10th February 1877, No. 55.

Pension and Gratuity.

Read the following paper:—

From D. BARBOUR, Esq., Under Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Fort William, 23rd January 1877, No. 190.

In acknowledging the receipt under your endorsements, Nos. 792 and 793, both dated 19th December 1876, of the Statements of Pensions and Gratuities for the quarter ended 30th September 1876, I am directed to communicate the following remarks:—

Statement II, entries Nos. 14, 19, and 25, Invalid Pensions. The grant in each case is in excess of what is admissible under rule by one pie.

Entry No. 24. The rules do not contemplate the grant of maximum pension to an officer whose character is reported to be "very indifferent."

Statement XIV, Extraordinary Family Pension.

A Local Government is not competent to sanction an extraordinary family pension, even though the pension be paid from a Local Fund. I am to request that the papers relating to this case may be submitted to the Government of India.

2. I am at the same time to request that the Government of India may be favored with a perusal of the papers relating to entry No. 30 of Statement II, Invalid Pensions, and also with an explanation of the grounds for charging to the Special Reward Fund the extraordinary family gratuities reported in entries Nos. 1 and 2 of Statement XV.

3. The statements are herewith returned for facility of reference, but they should be returned with your reply.

ORDER THEREON, 10th February 1877, No. 55.

Referred to the Marine and Judicial Departments, respectively, with reference to the concluding portion of paragraphs 1 and 2 of the foregoing letter from the Government of India, dated 23rd January 1877, No. 190.

2. A copy of the foregoing letter will also be communicated to the Accountant-General for such explanation as he may wish to offer in respect to the first portion of paragraph 1.
