From the Acting District Judge, South Canara, dated 27th June 1877, No. 11.
,, Officiating Assistant Accountant-General, dated 31st August 1877, No. 56.

ORDER THEREON, 18th October 1877, No. 567.

In October 1876, the Acting District Judge, South Canara, compelled one Pandit Rangappa, aged fifty-nine years, fifth Gumastah in the Barkur Munsif's Court, to retire in favor of another Gumastah who had been thrown out of employ by the abolition of the Karkal District Munsif's Court, and submitted on his behalf an application for the grant of a compensation pension.

2. In his letter forwarding the application, the Acting District Judge admitted that he was following a course at variance with the rules, and the Accountant-General having pointed out that a compensation pension was wholly inadmissible, Pandit Rangappa, who was upwards of fifty-nine years of age, was, nine months after his retirement, placed before a Medical Officer, who certified to his unfitness for further service. There can be but little doubt that Pandit Rangappa was, at the time of his removal, incapacitated for further good work, and the Most Noble the Governor in Council resolves to grant to him, under Section 65 (b) of the Civil Pension Code, the invalid pension of Rupees 4 per mensem, to which he is entitled for his qualifying superior service of thirty-six years, one month, and four days.

3. The Government notice with disapproval the arbitrary manner in which the Acting District Judge compelled Pandit Rangappa to retire, though apparently fully aware that a man so removed would not be eligible to pension. No such exceptional action should be taken without the previous sanction of the Government.

4. Copy of these Proceedings will be communicated to the Government of India.

Certified that I have carefully examined Pandit Rangappa, son of Pandit Paramaishraya, late a Gumashta attached to the Barkur District Munsiff's Court. His age is by his own statement less than 60 years, and by appearance about 65 years. I consider Pandit Rangappa to be completely & permanently incapacitated for further service of any kind, in the Department to which he belongs, in consequence of old age, and infirmity. His incapacity does not appear to me to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits.

I cannot say that I found the man absolutely unfit for the duties of a clerk.

W. S. G. S. G.

but I was of opinion that a younger man would be more efficient, and as by the abolition of the District Munsifs Court at Karhal younger and more efficient men were thrown out of employ, I thought myself justified in requiring Pandit Rangappa to retire as he was already superannuated as will be seen from the fact of his name appearing in the list annually submitted to you with reference to Govt. of India Notification dated 15th June 1871.

this reason I have put the applica-

a course which though slightly at variance with the letter of the rules may, I think, under the circumstances be allowed.

The delay in the submission of this application is owing to the fact that reference had to be made to the Collector's Depart-verification of the applicant's services - and in a great measure to the very late production by applicant of his service Book in the requisite printed form.
