Proceedings of Government, Pension Department, dated 28th August 1877, No. 460.

Read also the following paper:—

From Major W. M. FRAZER, Superintendent of Police, to the Assistant Inspector-General of Police, Madras, dated Vizagapatam, 20th September 1877, No. 234.

With reference to paragraph 2 of G.O., No. 460, dated 28th August 1877, received with your endorsement, No. 4068, I have the honor to inform you that late second-class Constable No. 594, Bundaru Kasavarayadu, applied for pension at his own request, stating that he had served the necessary period. I at the time was on a tour of inspection in the district, and, hearing that Constable Kasavarayadu had completed the necessary period for pension, ordered him before the Invaliding Committee with several others. I much regret the mistake that has occurred. I would not, of course, have allowed the man to go up had I not been misinformed, and Government may rest assured that such a mistake will not occur again.

2. Kasavarayadu served nearly fifteen years in the Police, and had but six petty entries in the Defaulter book. Considering the short period he wanted to entitle him to pension and the good character he bore while in service, I request that pension may be granted to him instead of gratuity.

E. No. 4343.

Forwarded to the Chief Secretary to Government with reference to paragraph 2 of G.O., No. 460, dated 28th August 1877, Pension Department.

Inspector-General of Police.

ORDER THEREON, 20th October 1877, No. 570.

In view of the prejudice which has been caused to Bundaru Kasavarayadu by his being compulsorily invalided when he had still two months and twenty days to serve for pension, the Governor in Council resolves, under Sections 52 and 109, Scale A, of the Civil Pension Code, to grant him an invalid pension of Rupees (2-5-6) two, Annas five, and Pies six for his qualifying service of fourteen years, nine months, and ten days, payable from the 14th August 1876, subject to confirmation by the Government of India.
