FROM

C. G. MASTER, Esq.,
Secretary to the Government of Fort St. George,
PENSION DEPARTMENT,

TO

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,
FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

In July last the Inspector-General of Police submitted an application for the grant of a gratuity of Rupees 91 to a second-class Constable named Bundaru Kasavarayadu who had served fourteen years, nine months, and ten days.

2. As it appeared that two months and twenty days' additional service would have entitled the applicant, who had borne a good character, to a pension of Rupees 2-5-0, the local Police authorities were required to state why the man had not been allowed to complete his service before being invalided. From an explanation now received from the Police Superintendent, it appears that at the time Constable B. Kasavarayadu was sent before the Invaliding Committee it was believed that he had completed a term of service entitling to pension.

3. It would seem that the applicant could, without prejudice to the public service, have been allowed to remain on in the Police until he had qualified for a pension, and I am to request the confirmation by the Government of India of the accompanying Proceedings of this Government granting him the pension of Rupees 2-5-6 per mensem, which he would have earned had the mistake as to his service not occurred.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

FORT ST. GEORGE,

Proceedings of Government, Pension Department, dated 28th August 1877, No. 460.

Read also the following paper:—

From Major W. M. FRAZER, Superintendent of Police, to the Assistant Inspector-General of Police, Madras, dated Vizagapatam, 20th September 1877, No. 234.

With reference to paragraph 2 of G.O., No. 460, dated 28th August 1877, received with your endorsement, No. 4068, I have the honor to inform you that late second-class Constable No. 594, Bundaru Kasavarayadu, applied for pension at his own request, stating that he had served the necessary period. I at the time was on a tour of inspection in the district, and, hearing that Constable Kasavarayadu had completed the necessary period for pension, ordered him before the Invaliding Committee with several others. I much regret the mistake that has occurred. I would not, of course, have allowed the man to go up had I not been misinformed, and Government may rest assured that such a mistake will not occur again.

2. Kasavarayadu served nearly fifteen years in the Police, and had but six petty entries in the Defaulter book. Considering the short period he wanted to entitle him to pension and the good character he bore while in service, I request that pension may be granted to him instead of gratuity.

Inspector-General of Police.

ORDER THEREON, 20th October 1877, No. 570.

In view of the prejudice which has been caused to Bundaru Kasavarayadu by his being compulsorily invalidated when he had still two months and twenty days to serve for pension, the Governor in Council resolves, under Sections 52 and 109, Scale A, of the Civil Pension Code, to grant him an invalid pension of Rupees (2-5-6) two, Annas five, and Pies six for his qualifying service of fourteen years, nine months, and ten days, payable from the 14th August 1876, subject to confirmation by the Government of India.

Financial DEPARTMENT.

Sir,

In July last the Inspector General of Police submitted an application for the grant of a gratuity of Rs 91 to a 2^d Class Constable named Bundaru Kasavarayadu who had served 14 years 9 months and 10 days.

2 As it appeared that 2 months and 20 days' additional service would have entitled the applicant, who had borne a good character, to a pension of Rs 2-5-6, the local Police Authorities were required to state why the man had not been allowed to complete his service before being invalided. From an explanation now received from the Police Superintendent it appears that at the time Constable

B.

B. Kasaravayadu was sent ~~as~~ before the Invaliding Committee it was believed that he had completed a term of service entitling to pension.

3 It would seem that the applicant could without prejudice to the Public Service have been allowed to remain on in the Police until he had qualified for a pension. I am to request that ~~sanction~~ ^{the Commission} may be accorded to the accompanying Proceedings of this Govt.
granting him the pension of Rs 2-5-6 per mensem, which he would have earned had the mistake as to his service ~~as~~ not occurred.
