CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL.

CERTIFIED that (subject to the remarks below recorded) qualifying service in {inferior} grades has been duly proved for 12 years 11 months and 10 days; and that an {unvalued} pension {gratuity} not exceeding Rs. 32-4-2 equal to 2, is admissible under Section 65(a) of the Civil Pension Code. (The calculations have been duly verified.)

The Establishment of Zilla-dars in which the applicant served from February 1866 is still viewed as temporary and is still being shown as such in the annual statement of temporary establishments submitted to the Chief Secretary to Government; the Collector also enters the Establishment as temporary in the Applicant's Service Book. But as this Office has held such service to be permanent with reference to para 2 of Government Order Pension Department dated 8 July 1875 N. 379, - it is requisite either that these establishments should be reclassified in the annual returns of permanent establishments, and be subject to the ordinary rules of audit, or that the Government of India may be moved to amend the Civil Pension Department Order.

60 years, and by appearance about 60 years.

I consider that Venkatasubbiah to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further service of any kind in the Department to which he belongs, in consequence of old age. His Capacity does not appear to me to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits.

22nd August 1870.

Read your Arzi No 236 of the 8th Instant:

Zilladar Venkatasubhiah himself admits that there are arrears of revenue to the extent of Rs 7027 still outstanding in his Firkah - a circumstance which speaks either of his inefficiency or disobedience to the repeated orders issued to him.
I cannot attribute it to the former alternative, but fully believe that it is due only to disobedience of orders. I have therefore suspended the Zilladar for six months this time, instead of dismissing him.

You should submit a report on the 30th July 1871, as to how he discharges his duties from the day he may rejoin his appointment.
