Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, for the month of March 1860.

No. 15. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 14th March 1860, No. 1,305:—

Read again letter from the Acting Collector of North Arcot, dated 14th November 1859, No. 268.

(In Con. 16th November 1859, No. 5,740.)

Read also the following letter from J. D. ROBINSON, Esq., Acting Collector of North Arcot, to J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, Fort Saint George, dated Chittoor, 6th March 1860, No. 51:—

With reference to the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, under date the 3rd December last, No. 4,995, I have the honor to state, that on a re-perusal of the orders passed by Mr. Sullivan, in the case of Rámánjulu Náyudu, I am unable to arrive at any other opinion than that already expressed, viz., that his dismissal from the service was a harsher measure than the circumstances warranted; and that if the then constitution of the Joint Magistrate's Office Establishment, and the disclosures which have since come to light in connection with the Railway robbery trials, be taken into consideration, there are very good reasons for supposing that Rámánjulu Náyudu was sacrificed to make room for an agency more subservient to the overgrown and pernicious influence of the late Police Amín. How far Rámánjulu Náyudu may be chargeable with contumacy it will be for the Board to determine from the papers already before them. His hesitation to conform to his superior's arrangements was unquestionably irritating and unbecoming but beyond this, the record does not to my mind establish any overt contumacy or disobedience against him.

2. Mr. Sullivan declined to accept Rámánjulu Náyudu's resignation, and dismissed him for demurring to join his new appointment.

3. The Board have already declared that they see no objection to Rámánjulu Náyudu's re-employment, and the case being one which comes under Clause 3 of the Order of Government, dated 6th May 1859, the only question is whether, under the peculiar circumstances above set forth, his re-employment is allowable without the preliminary of passing the Uncovenanted Service Examination.

Resolved that the above correspondence seeking exemption from the Examination Rules, on behalf of a person formerly removed from the Service, but whose re-employmnet has been sanctioned by the Board, be submitted for the Orders of Government.

2. Rámánjulu Náyudu was dismissed by the Sub-Collector for contumaciously declining to take up the office of Police Amín of Arcot without assigning any sufficient reason. He sought to obtain leave before joining his appointment, and when it was offered him after joining he tendered his resignation, which the Sub-Collector declined to accept and dismissed him. The Board declined to interfere on his behalf, but sanctioned his re-employment, and Mr. Robinson now proposes to appoint him Police Amín of Vellore, and solicits that he may be exempted from the Entrance Examination, which the Board recommend to be granted, as they consider that his dismissal was an extreme measure of punishment in the first instance.

No. 222. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 8th August 1871, No. 3,331 :—

Read the following letter from the Collector of North Arcot, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Palmanair, 20th June 1871, No. 330.

GNANASAGARA Row, the Tahsildar of the Chittoor Talook, having applied for and obtained sick leave for six months, I have appointed Ramanjulu Naidu, the Vernacular Head Clerk of my Office, to act as Tahsildar of the Chittoor Talook during Gnanasagara Row's absence.

2. Ramanjulu Naidu has officiated on various occasions as Tahsildar in this district, as the accompanying list of his services will show; and although he has not passed the Special Tests qualifying for the post to which I have now appointed him, I know him, from the close personal observation of years, to be a thoroughly trained Revenue-officer. When tried before, his magisterial work never came under the census of the Court, and evinced great care and fair knowledge of the criminal law.

3. If the Board will refer to the correspondence noted in the margin, they will find that Ramanjulu Naidu has been already highly recommended. He is highly respectably connected, and I have never heard a whisper against his moral character and official integrity.

4. I should mention that Ramanjulu Naidu already went up for the Special Test Examination, but failed to pass. This is one of those hard cases in which men of long and trained exp ce in the service, but arrived at a time of life when scholastic habits are diffic acquire, see themselves shut out from that preferment which mere boys p ing one tithe of their practical knowledge, claim by right of having fulfill tain technical tests of qualification.

5. I believe there are i ces in which old public servants have been exempted from passing the Special Test Examination, and, in asking the Board to recognize the temporary arrangement which is the more immediate object of the present reference, I respectfully request that they will recommend to Government that the indulgence be extended to Ramanjulu Naidu.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.—Service Register.

THE temporary appointment is sanctioned.

2. The Board resolve to submit the request that Ramanjulu Naidu may be exempted from the examination required for Tahsildar's post for the favourable consideration of Government. He has been in the service since January 1855, was specially brought forward by Mr. Fraser in 1862, and has acted as Tahsildar frequently.

No. 124. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 9th October 1871, No. 4,322 :—

Read the following letter from the Collector of North Arcot, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Chittoor, 8th September 1871, No. 444.

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of the Proceedings of the Government dated 21st August 1871, No. 1,433, communicated with Board's Miscellaneous No. 3,061, dated 1st instant.

2. Gnanasagara Row, the permanent Tahsildar of Chittoor, having died since the date of my reference upon which the above orders were issued, I have now the honour to request that the Board will be pleased, for the reasons set forth in my letter No. 330, dated 20th June last, to submit, with their own recommendation, my proposal to appoint Ramanjulu Naidu as permanent Tahsildar of Chittoor without requiring him to pass the Special Tests required for that post.

Submitted for the favourable consideration of Government.

2. In their Proceedings No. 3,331, dated 8th August 1871, the Board recommended that Ramanjulu Naidu might be exempted altogether from the Test prescribed for the office of Tahsildar, but Government, in their order thereon dated 21st idem, No. 1,433, restricted the [illegible] to the six months' [illegible] appointment then sanctioned.

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 20th November 1873.

Read again Board's Proceedings, dated 22nd September 1873, No. 1,904.

Read also the following letter from W. S. WHITESIDE, Esq., Collector of North Arcot, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Chittoor, 22nd October 1873, No. 655:—

In their Proceedings, dated 22nd ultimo, the Board of Revenue desire to be furnished with information upon certain points in connection with the misappropriation of Government money by the late Maniam Gumastah of Varadareddipalli, Chittoor Taluq, and I now have the honour to furnish the same.

1. I beg to forward translation of a statement (A) prepared by the Tahsildar of Chittoor, showing the dates on which the arrear, for which demands have been issued, accrued. It will be seen that the arrear was due from November 1870 to May 1872.

2. The Curnam of the village has not satisfactorily explained his omission to report the fact of remittance not having been made, although it is highly probable that he must have known of the collection having been made. Indeed, the fact of collections in some cases was recorded by the Curnam himself in the village Tandal Account, and the neglect on the part of the taluq subordinates to notice the delay in sending remittances only, I believe, encouraged the Curnam to co-operate with the Maniam Gumastah Papireddi in holding back the money already collected. Translation of the Curnam's deposition (B) given before the Taluq Sheristadar is enclosed for reference.

3. Translations of the Revenue Inspector's reports, marked C, D, E, F, and G, are forwarded. It will be seen from C that the Tahsildar only directed the Revenue Inspector to send for Papireddi, and gave no orders for inquiry into the conduct of the Maniam Gumastah in holding back the money collected by him on account of Government. Between the date of the Tahsildar's conversation with the Revenue Inspector and the death of Papireddi, the Revenue Inspector appears to have been engaged in collecting large arrears both in his own division and in that of the 2nd-class Revenue Inspector (vide copy* of explanation marked H). When, however, the Revenue Inspector was able to give his attention to this case, he heard of Papireddi's death. If the Revenue Inspector had been instructed to proceed at once to the village and make inquiries, instead of being ordered to bring Papireddi to the Tahsildar,—a duty which might very well have been entrusted to a taluq peon,—there would probably have been no loss of money to Government.

4. The Board will thus perceive that it is the Tahsildar who is primarily responsible in this case. If he had only properly supervised the work of collections, all this confusion and loss would have been avoided. To show to the Board how lamentably the Tahsildar has neglected one of his most important duties, I enclose copy of Mr. Cox's letter (J), No. 418, dated 11th October 1873. I had requested Mr. Cox personally to examine the records of the Chittoor Taluq, and the result only goes to confirm my belief that Ramanjulu Naidu is unequal to the duties of a Tahsildar. He neglected in the most surprising manner his business in nearly every department. The arrear of petitions and orders is as unsatisfactory as the arrear of revenue. In spite of rebukes and warnings personally communicated to him, Ramanjulu Naidu made no effort to clear off the large arrear in every department under his control. He is no longer in this district, having been allowed* to exchange place with the Tahsildar of Madanapalli in the Cuddapah District, and I would, therefore, leave it to the Board to inflict what punishment they consider fit upon Ramanjulu Naidu.

THE Board consider it proved that the embezzlement of Rupees 624-11-0 by the deceased Moniagar of Varadareddipalli, Papireddi, was rendered possible by the most culpable apathy and indifference on the part of Ramanjulu Naidu who was then Tahsildar of Chittoor.

2. He is now Tahsildar of Madanapally. A copy of Mr. Whiteside's letter of the 25th August 1873, No. 517, will be furnished to the Collector of Cuddapah, and he will be requested to report how Ramanjulu Naidu has done his work since he has been in that district.

3. The Revenue Inspector, Kumarasami Mudali, seems to have been to blame in no respect.

4. The embezzlement would have been impossible if the Curnam, Paraswarama Pillai, had done his duty, and he must be dismissed.

5. Government will be requested to allow the sum of Rupees 624-11-0, being land-revenue collected from ryots, but embezzled by a Moniagar, to be written off.

Read the following letter from W. D. HORSLEY, Esq., Collector of Cuddapah, to J. GROSE, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Chitwail, 21st July 1874, No. 166:—

As directed in Board's Proceedings, Miscellaneous No. 404, dated 21st January 1874, I have the honour to forward copy of a letter* from the Acting Sub-Collector regarding Ramanjulu Naidu's capabilities as a Tahsildar.

2. Ramanjulu Naidu is evidently not suited to the post he holds. I believe a good deal of the apathy complained of by the Sub-Collector is due to bad health. Whatever the cause may be, he has not improved since he came to this district, although he knew that he was, as it were, serving here on probation. If he cannot, under such circumstances, give satisfaction, it is hopeless to expect that he will improve hereafter.

3. I recommend that he may be ordered to take his pension at the close of his service.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

From J. D. B. GRIBBLE, Esq., Acting Sub-Collector, to W. D. HORSLEY, Esq., Collector of Cuddapah, dated 10th July 1874, Extra No. 1.

WITH reference to the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, directing me to report upon Ramanjulu Naidu, the Tahsildar of Madanapalli, I have the honor to submit the following report. I have delayed it until the end of the fasli in order to be able to state the condition of the revenue balance of the taluq.

2. The balance is considerably better this year than it was at the end of the last fasli. The current balance is Rupees 18,000 (being Rupees 8,000 less than last year). I am, however, bound to say that this balance is greater than in any other of the four taluqs, and that it is only after considerable pressure that I have been able to get it reduced to this figure. Six weeks ago it was over Rupees 30,000, although the settlement (except of four villages) was over early in May. The season has been a very good one, showing an increase of about Rupees 3,000, and there is no reason for there being so large a balance.

3. As regards his general work, I regret to say I am very far from being satisfied with Ramanjulu Naidu. He is profuse in promises, but seldom fulfils them. For the last nine months, I have had continually to egg him on in order to rouse him from his apathy. I will cite one instance of this apathy: at the commencement of May the Tahsildar was at Kandakoor looking after some Local Fund work he had for many months neglected. Whilst there, in consequence of some heavy rains, the calingulah of the large Kandakoor tank (the largest in the district) was reported to him to be in a dangerous condition. Though only four miles off, he never visited it, or took any steps for its repair, but went back to Madanapalli (32 miles); on his way he passed the camp of the range officer by the side of the road, but never even reported this. Luckily, the range officer received a report the next day from the villagers, and at once went to the spot. He has since informed me that the tank could not have stood another day, and I feel sure that if it had breached, there would have been a loss to Government of nearly one lakh of Rupees. In other matters, he has been dilatory and unenergetic, and though he moves about a good deal, his visits do not seem to be of any practical good. At the settlement I was far from satisfied with his knowledge of the taluq matters, and had frequently publicly to find fault with him.

4. In Magisterial matters, I have not much fault to find, but my notice has been attracted by the very large number of cases in his Court, which are compromised or dismissed for non-appearance. In two months (February and March) there were more than 35 such cases.

7/15 Augt /74

5. I have no specific charge to bring against Ramanjulu Naidu, but I am convinced that he is very lazy, and that he leaves almost everything in the hands of his subordinates. Soon after he joined the district, I was made aware of the serious charge brought against him by the Collector of North Arcot, but as the Board of Revenue allowed me some time in which to form my opinion of him, I have tested and tried him over and over again. In one thing only have I found him proficient, in promising; but as a Tahsildar I believe him to be almost useless.

Ramanjulu Naidu is, I believe, within five months of being entitled to a pension. Should the Board of Revenue think that there is not sufficient against him to require his retirement at the end of this time, I beg that my report may be simply "recorded." In the event of the Board deciding that it would be advisable for him to retire when entitled to his pension, I would request that the communication of their resolve may be somewhat delayed, as I fear that should he know he must retire, I shall get only a minimum of work out of him, since I have been able to get so little although he knew this report was hanging over his head.

6. I have forwarded this report in my own handwriting, and leave it to you to decide whether you will forward it to the Board in original or not.

(True Copy.)

(Signed) W. D. HORSLEY,
Collector.

RAMANJULU NAIDU must be required to retire as soon as he has served his time for pension. If he does not choose to do so, the Board will be obliged to recommend Government either to dismiss or reduce to a lower grade a man whose apathy and indifference have caused pecuniary loss to the State, and render it inexpedient to entrust the important interests of a taluq to his charge.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE, dated 18th August 1875.

Read the following letter from W. D. HORSLEY, Esq., Collector of Cuddapah, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 9th August 1875, No. 165:—

ARNI Kristna Row, Tahsildar of Kadiri, but acting at Madanapalli for Ramanjulu Naidu, having been appointed to act as Deputy Collector, I have the honor to recommend, at the suggestion of the Sub-Collector, that Royachoti Nagesa Row, Sheristadar of Madanapalli Taluq, may be appointed to act as Tahsildar of that taluq.

2. Nagesa Row has passed the required tests and completed his qualifying service.

3. I request that the Board, if they approve of my nomination, will allow Nagesa Row to draw deputation allowance.

IN their Proceedings of the 20th November 1873, No. 2,371, the Board censured the conduct of Ramanjulu Naidu, in a case of embezzlement of Government money by a Monigar, whilst he was Tahsildar of Chittoor, and requested the Collector of Cuddapah, to which district Ramanjulu Naidu had been transferred, to report on the manner in which he had performed his work since his transfer.

2. The first report, dated 6th January 1874, was to the effect that Ramanjulu Naidu had not been sufficiently long in the district to enable the Collector to form an opinion, but that so far he had shown no signs of apathy. The second report recorded in Board's Proceedings, dated 15th August 1874, No. 2,267, was unfavorable, and the Board decided that Ramanjulu Naidu must be required to retire as soon as he has served his time for pension, otherwise the Board would be obliged to recommend his dismissal or reduction to a lower grade. Meanwhile, Ramanjulu Naidu took privilege leave, and subsequently on his return from privilege leave he was granted leave on medical certificate. The exact period of sick leave granted is not clear. The medical certificate recommended the grant of six months, and in his letter of the 7th January 1875, No. 3, the Collector reported that he had "sanctioned the leave," but the docket of that letter gives the period as three months, as also does the Collector's letter of the 3rd February 1875, and from the enclosures to the petition it would appear that the petitioner claimed his post on the expiration of three months, viz., 4th April.

Board's Miscellaneous Proceedings, dated 22nd October 1874, No. 7,345, and 19th February 1875, No. 1,303.

3. Meanwhile the Collector had reported, that owing to a break in Ramanjulu Naidu's service consequent on dismissal in 1858, by which he forfeited his previous service, he could not retire at once, and suggested that sanction should be obtained for his service prior to dismissal being allowed to reckon towards pension. The Board in their Proceedings of 4th March 1875, No. 1,758, declined to make a reference on the subject, and directed the Collector to present to

Ramanjulu Naidu the alternative stated in their Proceedings of 15th August 1874, No. 2,267, as he could not be allowed to remain in the service so long as appeared necessary to entitle him to pension. The Collector finally reported that Ramanjulu Naidu had no intention of retiring, and wished to appeal, and that he had directed the Sub-Collector to furnish him with the subject of the complaints made against him, which, however, does not appear to have been done. This letter was recorded.

4. It now appears from the Collector's endorsement of 7th July 1875 (Enclosure No. III. to the petition), that the Collector has declined to allow Ramanjulu Naidu to resume his office as Tahsildar of Madanapalli, apparently on the strength of Board's Proceedings, dated 4th March 1875, No. 1,758. The Collector had no power to suspend Ramanjulu Naidu (vide Standing Order No. XXXII. of 1874), and as the Board have nowhere authorized his suspension, he should have applied for definite instructions on this point if he thought that the Board's orders in Ramanjulu Naidu's case precluded his resuming office on the expiration of leave.

5. On further consideration, the Board are of opinion that Ramanjulu Naidu is not deserving of so severe a punishment as dismissal, involving loss of pension, and that it will be a sufficient penalty for his shortcomings if the period which has elapsed since the expiration of his leave on medical certificate is viewed as suspension, and a warning administered to the effect that if he does not give satisfactory evidence of greater diligence and attention to duty, the Board will recommend his removal without reference to pension or other considerations.

6. Ramanjulu Naidu will be reinstated on receipt of these Proceedings, and the Collector will report the date on which he will be entitled to one-third pension. From the Sub-Collector's letter which accompanied the Collector's letter of the 3rd February 1875, it would appear that he has only about ten months more to serve.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE, dated 30th November 1876.

Read the following letter from J. D. B. GRIBBLE, Esq., Acting Sub-Collector, to J. R. DANIEL, Esq., Acting Collector of Cuddapah, dated 2nd November 1876, No. 505 :—

IN obedience to Board's Order, No. 2,326, dated 18th August 1875, I have the honor to submit a report on the conduct of Ramanjulu Naidu, Tahsildar of Madanapalli.

2. I am glad to be able to say that, during the past year, I have noticed a very marked improvement in his work, especially at the present time, when Relief Works are being started in all directions. I can safely say that he has been of the very greatest assistance to me, and has shown himself more active and energetic, and has turned out better work than any other of my Tahsildars.

3. Considering how strongly I reported against him last year, the Board will, I think, see that there must have been a very great improvement in order to induce me to make so favorable a report now.

4. At the present moment I could ill spare him, and I therefore beg to suggest that he may be allowed to continue in his present post. When the present distress has passed over, I will, should the Board direct me, submit another and fuller report.

THE Board are glad to receive so favorable a report of Ramanjulu Naidu's services, and trust that in the present critical state of the district he will prove himself to be fitted for the duties of his responsible post.

2. The Board will await the further report promised.

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 6th March 1877.

Read the following letters :—

From J. F. PRICE, Esq., Acting Collector of Cuddapah, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 31st January 1877, No. 60.

I HAVE the honor to enclose an application* supported by the necessary papers for the grant of superannuation pension to C. Ramanjulu Naidu, Tahsildar of Madanapalli, who has been compelled through ill-health to retire† from the service.

* For transmission to the Government through the Accountant-General.

† Vide Board's Proceedings, dated 18th August 1875, No. 2,326, and Collector's letter to the Board, dated 1st May 1876, No. 106.

2. The Acting Sub-Collector writes as follows, regarding the arrangements which he proposes should be made to fill the vacancy. As I know nothing of the men I can offer no remarks regarding them. Mr. Gribble having been for some time in the district is, I should think, in a position to form an opinion as to their qualifications. I enclose their Service Books.‡

1 Book of T. Rama Row.
1 ,, of D. V. Tiruvengadacharlu.
‡ To be returned.

" I propose to make the following arrangements, for which, if they meet with your approval, I beg that the necessary sanction may be obtained.

" Tadmurry Rama Row, your Head Clerk, at present acting as my Sheristadar, to be Tahsildar of Madanapalli, but to continue to act in his present appointment till further orders."

" Drishil Viravalli Tiruvengadacharlu, Taluq Sheristadar of Royachoty and at present Special Sub-Magistrate in Royachoty, to act as Tahsildar of Madanapalli.

" Hogirala Ramiah, Acting Head Clerk in my office, to be Special Sub-Magistrate in Royachoty. All these officers are qualified."

ENCLOSURE No 1.—Application for Pension.

ENCLOSURES Nos. 2 to 4.—Service Registers.

From the same Officer, dated 24th February 1877, No. 91.

I HAVE the honor to forward the medical certificate granted to C. Ramanjulu Naidu, late Tahsildar of Madanapalli taluq, which was through the carelessness of the despatching clerk, who has been fined for it, not forwarded with my letter, dated 31st January 1877, No. 60.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.—Medical Certificate.

From the same Officer, dated 21st February 1877, No. 90.

I HAVE the honor to request that the Board will be pleased to obtain the necessary sanction to the following arrangements.

2. K. Vencataragava Row Naidu, Tahsildar of Sidhout, died on the 1st December last, and since then the vacancy has not been filled up, owing to the inability of Mr. Daniel or myself to think of any one who would be likely to occupy the post with real benefit to the district. I asked one good man whether he would take the appointment, but he preferred office work, and declined it. The Tahsildar of Madanapalli has left the service on account of duly certified ill-health, and his application for pension, which I beg that the Board will be good enough to hold in abeyance, until I report that he has satisfactorily settled his Famine Accounts, which are in great disorder, has been sent in. The Sheristadar is in charge.

3. It occurred to me when talking matters over at Madanapalli with the Acting Sub-Collector, that Aravamoothiengar, now Head-quarter Inspector of Police at Salem, and whom I have known for many years, might be put into Sidhout as permanent Tahsildar, and sent to act at Madanapalli until matters are put in order there, and the man whom Mr. Gribble wishes appointed, and who is now on special duty, can take up the post.

4. The Acting Sub-Collector fully agrees with me that this arrangement would be a very good one, and Mr. Benson has no objections to having Aravamoothiengar. Captain Hodges has intimated to me demi-officially that he will permit him take up the appointment.

5. He is undoubtedly an able and active man, and well acquainted with the Criminal Law. He has passed all the necessary tests, and has qualified in point of service. He rides capitally, and stands the sun well. His only fault, as far as I know, is that he is rather impetuous, and overbearing in manner; but this can easily be quelled, and he is a man who has sense enough to see that he must discontinue this kind of thing if he wishes to get on.

6. I enclose a copy of his testimonials. He served in my division for some years, but I would give him nothing in the way of a certificate when I left. It is against my custom to do so, as I think that the entries in Service Registers are sufficient. I have, however, a high opinion of his qualifications and energy, and though there have been complaints of, and stories against him, I never found on inquiry that they had any real foundation. They originated, in almost every instance, from his activity in hunting down offenders.

THE application of Ramanjulu Naidu for pension and the medical certificate, received with the first two letters read above, are herewith returned to the Collector. He will submit them to Government through the Accountant-General after satisfying himself that the Tahsildar has rendered correct accounts of famine expenditure. A short report on this point should be submitted for the Board's information.

2. As no permanent arrangement can be made to fill up the Madanapalli Tahsildary till Ramanjulu Naidu's pension is sanctioned, the Government cannot be now moved to appoint Tadmurry Rama Row permanently to that taluq as recommended in the Collector's letter of the 31st January 1876. Further application should be made when the vacancy becomes complete. The other arrangements proposed in the above letter are cancelled by the recommendation contained in the Collector's last letter read above, and with reference to it the sanction of Government is requested for the appointment of Aravamoothiengar Head-quarter Inspector of Police at Salem, to be Tahsildar of Sidhout, but to act as Tahsildar of Madanapalli.

3. No arrangement has been proposed for filling up the temporary vacancy at Sidhout, which has apparently been without a Tahsildar since the 1st December. The Collector will submit a nomination if necessary.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE, dated 16th June 1877.

Read the following letter from J. F. PRICE, Esq., Acting Collector of Cuddapah, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Madanapalli, 8th June 1877, Extra No. 1,382 :—

Board's Proceedings, No. 1,061, dated 6th March 1877.

I HAVE the honor to report for the orders of the Board, that Ramanjulu Naidu, late Tahsildar of the Madanapalli Taluq, was directed to adjust his famine relief accounts and was, under the authority marginally noted, informed that until he did so his application for pension would not be sent in.

2. A careful examination of the books, which were in the utmost confusion, led to the discovery of a balance of Rupees 57-3-6, for which the late Tahsildar could not account. Upon this he was, under my orders, informed that if he paid up this sum his application for pension would be sent up.

3. He has now replied in the letter, of which the enclosed is a copy, arguing that he should not pay and that the Taluq Sheristadar is the responsible person.

4. Ramanjulu Naidu worked very carelessly and badly, and it is to his want of attention to his duties that an infinity of trouble in the adjustment of the accounts is due.

5. It was his duty to see that vouchers for the expenditure of all sums for relief purposes were sent in, and he did not.

6. His allegation that he has not been informed of the items to which the claim made against him refer, is not true, as Lieutenant Money had him up and made him adjust each entry of expenditure which stood in the Treasury accounts.

7. The latter part of his letter refers to the question of loans which I have discovered were, before I took charge, contracted in a most irregular manner by the taluq officials for the payment of relief coolies.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

From C. RAMANJULU NAIDU, Retired Tahsildar, to the Sub-Collector of Cuddapah at Madanapalli, dated Vellore, 30th May 1877.

I BEG respectfully to acknowledge the receipt of your Order, No. 53, dated 25th instant, and to state that I am not informed of the particulars of the items of Rupees 57-3-6 alluded to therein, for which it is stated that no vouchers were found ; I am, under the following circumstances, not justified to remit the above sum which I never received from the Taluq Treasury of Madanapalli while I was in charge.

I beg also to submit that the Taluq Sheristadar and the Shroff, who has furnished security to Government, and the Cash Gumastah are responsible for all disbursements and for their vouchers' and to suggest that they are to be called on to explain the cause of their absence. If they were to state that they had omitted to obtain the required vouchers from the parties to whom the sums were actually paid, they should now, as a matter of course, supply duplicates thereof. I believe such a course is an established one, and I am in no way responsible for vouchers of the Cash Department.

I beg to embrace this opportunity to mention that, during the time I was in charge, I have ad to perform very heavy and laborious tasks which were too numerous for a Tahsildar to ccomplish, in consequence of the famine relief-works in all directions of the taluq, without the id of other agency. I was therefore not able to stop for a moment in the Taluq Cutcherry.

Under the General Revenue and Special Famine Relief Rules the Taluq Sheristadar is held tly responsible for all the accounts. I admit that the general management of the taluq at crisis was under my charge, but solely on this score I will not be justified to remit sums rsed by the Taluq Sheristadar.

beg at the same time to state that I was expressly directed by the Acting Sub-Collector, D. B. Gribble, to continue in charge of the taluq up to the 15th February 1877, and my 1st to 15th idem, viz., Rupees 93-12-0, is due to me and which has not yet been , and which I shall feel greatly obliged by your kindly ordering to be paid to me at venience.

I beg, in conclusion, to assure you that I obtained no irregular loans from private individuals. I and the Special Taluq Magistrate, N. Kristna Row Garu, were desired by the Sub-division Sheristadar and Mr. Swan, the Special Divisional Magistrate, to obtain loans from the merchants of Madanapalli for paying relief coolies who were in great distress for want of wages and in the absence of money in the Taluq Treasury for a long period. The 2nd-Class Revenue Inspector of Tamballapalli had obtained loans on his own responsibility for payment to the relief-coolies under his charge during the same period, on account of saving the lives of many hundreds of coolies placed on relief-works.

I most respectfully beg to solicit that you will be so good as to lay this my explanation for favorable consideration and orders of the Collector.

(True Copy.)

(Signed) J. W. JOHNSTON,
Special Deputy Collector, for Acting Collector.

THE Board leave it to the Collector to dispose of questions connected with the adjustment of the Tahsildar's famine accounts; merely remarking that his attempt to shift the responsibility to the Sheristadar is improper.

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL.

CERTIFIED that (~~subject to the remarks below recorded~~) qualifying service in {~~inferior~~ / superior} grades has been duly proved for 15 years 2 months and 9 days; and that an Invalid {pension / ~~gratuity~~} not exceeding Rs. 58-5-4 per mensem, equal to one third pay, is admissible under Section 59 (b) of the Civil Pension Code. (The calculations have been duly verified.) The Applicant was certified unfit for further service on the 13th January last, & instead of his being sent home the Sub Collr Mr Gribble retained him in service till 15th Feby following without the knowledge of, & authority from the Collector & allowed him pay till 31st Jany and to no later date. The pay drawn by the applicant from 18th to 31st Jany last should be recovered from the arrears of pension if his pension takes effect from 13th idem.

The cause of delay in the submission of this application has been explained by the Collector in his letter N° 2095 of 15th Ultimo herewith accompanying and it should be noticed that the Character of the applicant is returned as fair and not Good.

FROM THE ACCOUNTANT GENERAL, MADRAS,

TO THE Acting Collector of Cuddapah.

VIDE your Application for Pension on behalf of C. Ramanjulu Naidu late Tahsildar of Madanapalli Taluq –

THE undersigned has the honor to state that the Certificate of the applicant's unfitness for further service (herewith returned) granted by the Apothecary in Charge of Civil Hospital Madanapally cannot be accepted as Madanapally is not the Civil Station of the District – and to request therefore that you will be good enough to obtain one in lieu of the above from the Zillah Surgeon in the form prescribed in Section 54. of the Civil Pension Code and forward it to this Office at an early date –

Takid sent to the Tahsildar on the 18th Aug 77

Please send copies of Boards Proceedings Nos 2326 and 3013 dated 18 August '75 and 30 Nov '76 respectively and explain the cause of nearly seven months delay in the submission of this application — returned

In reference to your Official Memo. No. — dated 13th ultimo, I have the honour to forward a certificate of the unfitness for further service of Chyur Ramanjulu Naidu granted by the Civil Surgeon.

Nos 2326 dated 18th August 1875 & No 3013 dated 30th Nov 1876.

2. I also transmit as requested by you the Boards Proceedings marginally noted.

B. P. No 1061 dated 6th March 1877.

3. As regards the delay in sending in the application for pension, it was owing to an error first sent to the Board of Rev. Under instructions conveyed in para 1 of the Proceedings marginally noted, it was retained until Ramanjulu Naidu had charge of his famine accounts. This occupied a considerable time as he had left everything in most terrible confusion. It was not until 16th July last that the Chief Auditor reported that the requisite vouchers had been found. The application was sent in as soon as possible after this.

4. I may mention that the late Acting Sub Collector Mr Gribble without any authority from me and without my knowledge retained Ramanjulu Naidu in the service from the 13th January to the 15th February although the first certificate as to his unfitness for further service bore the former date.

Certified that I have carefully examined Chegur Ramanjooloo Naidoo, Son of Chegur Krishnasawmy Naidoo, Thasildar of Madanapully Talug, Cuddapah District. His age is, by his own statement, 50 years, and 5 Months, and by appearance, about 60 years, I consider Chegur Ramanjooloo Naidoo to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further Service of any Kind, or in the Department to which he belongs, in consequence of premature decay and infirmity, the result of a weak Constitution.

His incapacity does not appear to me to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits.

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 18th August 1876.

Read the following letter from W. D. Horsley, Esqr., Collector of Cuddapah, to H. E. Stokes, Esqr. Ag Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 9th August 1875, No 165:—

Arni Kristna Row, Tahsildar of Kadiri, but acting at Madanapally for Ramanjulu Naidu, having been appointed to act as Dy Collector, I have the honor to recommend, at the suggestion of the Sub Collector, that Royachoti Nagasa Row, Sheristadar of Madanapalli Talug, may be appointed to act as Tahsildar of that talug.

2. Nagasa Row has passed the required tests and completed his qualifying service.

3. I request that the Board, if they approve of my nomination, will allow Nagasa Row to draw deputation allowance.

Petition No 1649 of 1875 from Ramanjulu Naidu, Tahsildar of Madanapalli.

In their Proceedings of the 20th November 1873, No 2371, the Board censured the conduct of Ramanjulu Naidu, in a case of embezzlement of Govt money by a Monigar, whilst he was

Tahsildar

Tahsildar of Chittoor, and requested the Collector of Cuddapah, to which district Ramanjulu Naidu had been transferred to report on the manner in which he had performed his work since his transfer

2. The first report, dated 6th January 1874, was to the effect that Ramanjulu Naidu had not been sufficiently long in the district to enable the Collector to form an opinion, but that so far he had shown no signs of apathy. The second report recorded in Board's Proceedings, dated 15th August 1874, No. 2267, was unfavorable, and the Board decided that Ramanjulu Naidu must be required to retire as soon as he has served his time for pension, otherwise the Board would be obliged to recommend his dismissal or reduction to a lower grade. Meanwhile, Ramanjulu Naidu took privilage leave, and subsequently on his return from privilage leave he was granted leave on medical certificate. The exact period of sick leave granted is not clear. The medical certificate recommended the grant of six months, and in his letter of the th January 1875, No. 3, the Collector reported that he had "sanctioned the leave," but docket of that letter gives the period as three months, as also does the Collector's letter of the 3d February 1875, and from the enclosures to the petition it would appear that the petitioner claimed his post on the expiration of three months, viz:, 4th April.

3. Meanwhile the Collector had reported, that owing to a break in Ramanjulu Naidu's service consequent on dismissal in 1858, by which he forfeited his previous service, he could not retire at once, and suggested that sanction should be obtained for his service prior to dismissal being allowed to reckon towards pension. The Board in their Proceedings of 4th March 1875, No. 1758, declined to make a reference on the subject, and directed the Collector to present to Ramanjulu Naidu the alternative stated in their Proceedings of 15th Augt. 1874, No. 2267, as he could not be allowed to remain in the service ~~as~~ so long as appeared necessary to entitle him to pension. The Collector finally reported that Ramanjulu Naidu had no intention of retiring, and wished to appeal, and that he had directed the Sub Collector to furnish him with the subject of the complaints made against him, which, however, does not appear to have been done. This letter was recorded.

4. It now appears from the Collector's endorsement of 7th July 1875 (Enclosure No. III to the petition) that the the Collector has declined to allow Ramanjulu Naidu to resume his office as Tahsildar of Madanapalli apparently on the strength of Board's Proceedings, dated 4th March 1875, No 1758. The Collector had no power to suspend Ramanjulu Naidu (vide Standing Order No XXXII of 1874), and as the Board have nowhere authorized his suspension, he should have applied for definite instructions on this point if he thought that the Bd's orders in Ramanjulu Naidu's case precluded his resuming office on the expiration of leave.

5. On further consideration, the Board are of opinion that Ramanjulu Naidu is not deserving of so severe a punishment as dismissal in=volving loss of pension, and that it will be a sufficient penalty for his shortcomings if the period which has elapsed since the expiration of his leave on medical certificate is viewed as suspension, and a warning administered to the effect that if he does not give satisfactory evidence of greater diligence and attention to duty, the Board will recommend his removal without reference to pension or other considerations.

6. Ramanjulu Naidu will be reinstated on receipt of these Proceedings, and the Collector will report the date on which he will be entitled to one-third pension. From the Sub-Collectors letter which accompanied the

Collector's

~~The~~ Collector's letter of the 3d February 1875, it would appear that he has only about ten months more to serve.

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 30th November 1876.

Read the following letter from J. D. B. Gribble, Esqre, Acting Sub-Collector, to J. R. Daniel, Esquire, Ag Collector of Cuddapah, dated 2nd November 1876, No 505.

In obedience to Board's order, No 2,326, dated 18th August 1875, I have the honor to submit a report on the conduct of Ramanjulu Naidu, Tahsildar of Madanapalle.

2. I am glad to be able to say that, during the past year, I have noticed a very marked improvement in his work, especially at the present time, when relief works are being started in all directions. I can safely say that he has been of the very greatest assistance to me, and has shown himself more active and energetic, and has turned out better work than any other of my Tahsildars.

3. Considering how strongly I reported against him last year, the Board will, I think, see that there must have been a very great improvement in order to induce me to make so favorable a report now.

4. At the present moment I could spare him, and I therefore beg to suggest that he may be allowed to continue in his present post. When the present distress has passed over, I will, should the Board direct me, submit another and fuller report.

No 283.

Submitted with reference to Board's Proceedings dated the 16 May 1876, Miscellaneous No. 1,027.

The Board are glad to receive so favorable a report of Ramanjulu Naidu's services, and trust that in the present ~~critic~~ critical state of the district he will prove himself to be fitted for the duties of his responsible post.

2. The Board will await the further report promised.

Order thereon 6th November 1877 No. 664

Under Sections 52 and 59(b) of the Civil Pension Code (3rd Edition) His Grace the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Chyur Ramanjulu Naidu late Tahsildar of Madanapally Taluq, Cuddapah District an invalid pension of Rs (58-5-4) Fifty eight annas five and pies four per mensem to which he is entitled for his qualifying Superior Service of 15 yrs 2 months & 9 days payable from the 16th February 1877.–

2 In view of the† pressure of work in the Cuddapah District arising from the Famine the retention in the Service

Note. The Applicant's character is described as "fair" but no deduction has been made in the pension admissible. His chief fault seems to have been an independence of tone that was considered insubordination – He was once dismissed but was reinstated by the Board.
L

Note†. Mr. Gribble retained him on this account for about a month. He has only received pay up to the 31st Jany but seems entitled to it for the remaining 15 days. Hence this para.
L

Service of Chynr Ramanjulu Naidoo until the 15th of February 1877 is sanctioned retrospectively and his pension will take effect from that date
