Gratuity.

Read the following papers :—

From F. N. THOROWGOOD, Esq., Superintendent of the Madras Harbour Works, to the Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Madras, 20th June 1877, No. 25-W.

I have the honor to submit the accompanying form filled up in accordance with the Civil Pension Code, Appendix A, Form D, (see Chapter XXII, Section 122,) in which I apply for a gratuity for the father of the man who died at the Monegar Choultry from injuries received on these works on May 17th, 1877.

2. I ask that he may be allowed a gratuity of 17 Rupees, which is 2 Annas more than the pay of the deceased man would be for one month of thirty days, at 9 Annas per diem.

No. 1752.

Transferred to the Pension Department for favorable consideration. The man lost his life from injuries received in endeavouring to save State property during the cyclone.

(Signed) W. DONALD,
Offg. Dy. Accountant-General.

From Captain A. G. BEGBIE, R.E., Officiating Examiner, Public Works Accounts, to the Chief Secretary to Government, (through the Accountant-General) dated Fort St. George, 13*th September* 1877, No. 343-X.

I have the honor to forward the enclosed papers connected with the claim to an extraordinary gratuity on behalf of the father of the late Maduray, a Carpenter killed in the execution of duty, transferred to this office by the Accountant-General, Madras, for report, and to state that from the explanation furnished by the Superintendent of Harbour Works in the accompanying letter, No. 23-C, of the 28th July 1877, it is observed that the deceased was ordered by the Superintendent of Harbour Works to attempt to save Government property and that death occurred in the performance of duty attended with extraordinary bodily risk.

2. It is further observed from the endorsement of Government, No. 1752, of the 26th June 1877, that the fatality occurred during the late cyclone.

3. Under these circumstances, I am of opinion that the gratuity applied for (i.e., Rupees 17) may, under Section 118 of the Civil Pension Code, be granted to the father of the deceased.

4. The gratuity if granted should be borne by the Civil Department.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

Copy of a letter from the Examiner of Public Works Accounts, to the Superintendent of Madras Harbour Works, dated 18th July 1877, No. 224-X.

In returning the enclosed application for extraordinary gratuity for the family of the late Maduray, a Carpenter killed in the execution of duty, transferred to this office for report, I have the honor to request that you will be good enough to furnish information on the following points :—

1. Whether death to Maduray resulted in the performance of duty attended with extraordinary bodily risk.

2. Whether the duty, in the execution of which death was met, formed a portion of the deceased's ordinary duty, or whether the deceased was specially ordered by his superior to save Government property, or whether he himself endeavoured to save the Government property at his own risk.

3. Whether the inquest referred to in Section 121 of the Civil Pension Code was held and the evidence collected as therein required. If so, the information referred to in Clauses A and B under that section should be furnished.

4. Whether the claimant Soobooroy Auchary is the proper party to receive the gratuity with reference to Section 119 of the Civil Pension Code. Information on the several points adverted to in Clauses (A) to (D) in Section 120 of the Civil Pension Code should be furnished.

ORDER THEREON, 19th November 1877, No. 630.

Under Section 118 of the Civil Pension Code (3rd Edition), the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Soobooroy Auchary, father of the late Maduray, a Carpenter killed in the execution of his duty in connection with the Madras Harbour Works, a gratuity of Rupees (17) seventeen.

SIR,

I have the honor to acknowledge your letter No. 2214, dated 18th instant, and I now submit replies to your paragraphs in order.—

2. Para I. The death of Madaway occurred in the performance of duty attended with extraordinary bodily risk.

Para II. Deceased was ordered by me to attempt to save Government property. I consider such work as quite coming within the limits of his ordinary duty.—

Leave Rule 118 & Exception 6th

Para III. An inquest was held at the Monegar Choultry on the body of deceased and the verdict returned was "Died from Tetanus the result of injuries caused by a heavy beam striking the deceased on the legs."—

Para IV. The claimant Soobaroy Auchary is the father of the deceased and was partly dependant on the son who was unmarried. The deceased bore a good character and was a steady and skilful carpenter.—

3. Soobaroy Auchary is an old man and has lately been taken on the works to do light carpenter's work.— The enclosure received with your letter under reply is herewith returned. I have the honor to be
