Certified that I have carefully examined Coonhy Bava, son of Hussain Simah, a light keeper in the Marine Department. His age is, by his own statement, 66 years, and by appearance about 70 years. I consider Coonhy Bava to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further service of any kind in the Department to which he belongs in consequence of old age and infirmity. His incapacity does not appear to me to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits.

To

The Honorable D. F. Carmichael
Chief Secretary to Government,

SIR,

1. I have the honor to forward the accompanying Service Book and application for a gratuity on behalf of Coonby Bava, aged about 67 years, late a light keeper at the port of Cochin, who being incapacitated for further service from old age and infirmity, has been removed from the effective list.

2. It will be observed that Coonby Bava's service is given as from the 1st January 1856 to the 9th April last, but it is alleged that he was entertained in the year 1850, and the present head clerk of the Master Attendant's office, Cochin, affirms that when he joined the office in 1853, the man was then in the service. The records preserved in the Master Attendant's office, Cochin, however, date only from the year 1856, and that officer was directed to make a reference to the Treasury Deputy Collector of Malabar, in order, if possible, to ascertain whether Coonby Bava's name could be traced in in the pay abstracts of an older date filed in his office, but although there are bills to be found so far back as the year 1840, it is merely entered therein "Pay of 2 men to attend to flagstaff and light Rupees 10".

Some time was occupied in this correspondence, which accounts for the delay in the submission of the accompan-
-ing application.

3. For the service proved Coonhy Bava is entitled to a gratuity of 6/6 six months' pay, or Rupees 54-Fifty four, and as he all along bore a good character, I beg to recommend that the allowance be sanctioned for disbursement to be debited to the Port Fund, from which his salary was paid.
