From the Collector of North Arcot, dated 20th August 1877.

From the Officiating Deputy Accountant-General, dated 5th March 1878, No. 39.

ORDER THEREON, 2nd May 1878, No. 146.

An application, dated 20th August 1877, is submitted for the grant of a compensation pension to Sankara Subba Rao, lately an Income-tax Gumasta in the North Arcot District.

2. The applicant formerly held the post of Attender in the Collector's Office but was appointed Acting Income-tax Gumasta in the Kalastri Division on the 27th February 1862, and remained in that post until the abolition of the establishment in August 1865.

Reply

1. It appears from the departmental order under which the applicant was appointed to the Income Tax establishment that he was only appointed as an acting gumasta on Rs 12 and it cannot be ascertained from the other records whether his deputation to the temporary appointment was on or was not on the understanding that he would return to the permanent appointment of Attender on the termination of the temporary duty.

283. As it does not also appear that he resigned his permanent post for temporary service, it is impossible at this distance of time to state why the applicant's request to return to his permanent post of Attender, which, he states

90 states he made soon after he had been thrown out of employ, was not complied with.

Translations of the order referred to in reply No 1 and of that under which he was thrown out of employ are herewith submitted as directed.

1877 W Certified that I have carefully examined Subba Rao son of Sankar Rao, a late Income Tax Goomastah of Halastay Division in the District of North Arcot.
His age is, by his own statement 55 years and by appearance, about 65 years. I consider him to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further service of any kind in the Department to which he belongs in consequence of Leprosy.

His incapacity does not appear to me to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits.
