Deposition given on solemn affirmation before the Apistaut Collector of Vizagapatam on 27th October 1876 by Shek Sultan of Narsipatam.

I was appointed a Sepoy in the old Sibandi on a salary of Rs 5-0-0 when Mr Owen was Commanding officer. I continued in that old Sibbandi for 20 years. When Mr Owen was Commanding officer, Mr Reade was Collector. From the post of Sepoy in the Sibandi I joined the new Police as a Constable. It was Mr Buck that appointed me Constable. When employed in the old Sibandi, I never was dismiped, fined, reduced, or suspended. The period of my service under Government is 35 years. What has been stated above can be proved by the testimony of Kannam Saheb and Kanchi Gurayya.

He served in the old Sibandi twenty years.
Mr Mason was Collector then. Shek Sultan entered the new Police from the Sibandi as a Constable. I do not know the year in which the new Police was organized. While employed in the old Sibbandi, he was never dismissed, reduced, suspended or fined.
I know this as I also served in the old Sibandi. His service amounts to 35 years.

Deposition given before Colonel affirmed to by Shik Lull-ee late 1st Class Constable No 792, before the Assistant Collector of Vizagapatam on the 11th December 1877.

I was appointed a sepoy in the Sibandi Corps of Golugonda during the time that Mr Ialy was Commanding officer of that Corps.
My pay was Rs 5 a month. One year after I was employed, Mr. Brett came as Commanding officer, since when I was under his orders as a sepoy on Rs 5 a month until the Police Corps was organized in 1861. In 1861 I was appointed a 1st Class Constable, and I continued in the Police till October 1876. I never was fined, suspended, reduced, nor otherwise punished during the time that I was Sepoy & Constable I remember to have served 20 years in the Sibandi force of Golugonda, as a sepoy. The total period of my service is 35 years.

While in the Sibandi force of Golugonda, I was for a short time under the orders of Mr. Ialy and "for a long period under the orders of Mr Brett. In the deposition given by me previously I mentioned the length of my service, but stated erroneously that I was retained in the Sibandi Corps in the time of Mr. Brett who was here for a considerable time, in consequence of my not remembering the names of former officers owing to my old age and to my having served as a sepoy in the Sibandi. My memory now fails me that I was employed in the time of War Italy.

I can prove the truth of the above by the testimony of Surriam Lorianna and Surabhi Alchaya who served with me from the commencement and who are the inhabitants of Navishakam.
