Pension.

Read the following papers:—

From the District and Session Judge, Godavery, dated 11th February 1878.
" Officiating Deputy Accountant-General, dated 14th March 1878, No. 43.
Petition from P. NAGANNA, dated 5th February 1878.

ORDER THEREON, 11th May 1878, No. 164.

Application is made for the grant of an invalid gratuity of Rupees 42 to Pamarto Naganna, lately a Messenger in the Godavery District Court.

2. The applicant's first appointment was that of peon in the Masulipatam Zillah Auxiliary Court where he served from 10th October 1835 until the 31st December 1848 when the Court was abolished.

For this service of thirteen years, two months, and twenty-one days he received a gratuity of Rupees 15, which however was not granted by Government until the 1st February 1851 when he was a peon in the Rajahmundry Civil Court.

3. It appears that Pamarto Naganna was re-employed in the public service on the 13th June 1850, and, as he had thus remained without employment for more than a year, he was entitled under the rules* then in force to retain the whole of his gratuity.

*Of 1835.

† See letter to Government of India, No. 252, dated 16th August 1867.
From Government of India, dated 8th April 1868, No. 2116.

4. This case is similar to that of Custoor† Rungiah Naidoo in which the Government of India ruled that a pension might be allowed if the gratuity already received were refunded.

5. His Grace the Governor in Council is therefore pleased to grant to P. Naganna on condition of his refunding the gratuity previously paid to him the pension of Rupees (3-8-0) three and Annas eight per mensem to which he is entitled for his qualifying inferior service of forty years, five months, and four days.

6. The amount of the gratuity will be recovered from the arrears of pension now due.

7. Copy of these Proceedings will be submitted for the information of the Government of India.

 Certified that I have carefully examined Pámarí-hagamu, Inspector of the District Court of Rajahmundry Godavari District.
 Son of Pámarí Soriah. His age is, by his own statement, 58
 and by appearance, about 60 years. I consider Pámarí-hagamu to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further service of any kind, in the Department to which he belongs, in consequence of old and infirmity. His infirmity does not appear to me to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits.
