GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

21st May 1878, No. 195.

Gratuity.

Read the following papers:—

From the Inspector-General of Jails, Ootacamund, dated 29th October 1877, No. 6112, submitting an application for gratuity on behalf of Anthoo, lately Masalchi of the Civil Jail at Madras.

Memorandum from the Officiating Deputy Accountant-General, to the Superintendent of Prisons for the Town of Madras (through the Inspector-General of Jails), dated Fort St. George, 2nd November 1877.

Audit Department.

Vide your application for gratuity on behalf of Anthoo.

The undersigned has the honor to return the register of application for insertion of the class of gratuity, viz., B, i.e., invalid opposite to the 9th item in the first page of it, as no other class than that is admissible to servants in inferior grades; and to request that you will be good enough to give at least the approximate age of the applicant since the exact age is stated to be unknown, and to furnish the certificate of unfitness for further service required under Section 53 of the Civil Pension Code.

(Signed) W. DONALD,
Offg. Deputy Accountant-General.

Memorandum from the Superintendent of Prisons for the Town of Madras, to the Accountant-General, dated Madras, 20th November 1877, No. 6707.

Has the honor to state that meantime the man Anthoo is dead.

2. The Civil Jail Writer, who was directed to make inquiries on the subject, states that he leaves as nearest relatives two sons: the elder, Adaikalam by name, aged twenty-four, is now masalchi in the Civil Jail; the younger, Savithian by name, aged eighteen, is without employment. They live together as undivided members at No. 8, Royappen Street, Black Town. Requests instructions.

(Signed) W. H. HALLETT, Captain,
Supt. of Prisons for the Town of Madras.

Memorandum from the Officiating Deputy Accountant-General, to the Superintendent of Prisons for the Town of Madras (through the Inspector-General of Jails), dated Fort St. George, 5th December 1877.

Audit Department.

Vide your application for gratuity on behalf of Anthoo and reply memorandum of 20th November 1877, No. 6707.

The undersigned has the honor to inquire—

- I. Why was the applicant removed from service in August last without medical certificate of unfitness for further service, vide Section 53 of the Civil Pension Code.
- II. Whether the applicant was found by the Superintendent of Prisons as unfit for further service. If so, what were the grounds under which he was considered unfit.
- III. Was the applicant's death sudden, or had he been ailing for some time, and what disease was he suffering from. An early reply is requested.

(Signed) W. DONALD,
Offg. Deputy Accountant-General.

No. 6981.

Forwarded to the Superintendent of Prisons for the Town of Madras for early report.

Ootacamund,
8th December 1877.

(Signed) T. E. TENNANT, Lieut.-Colonel,
Inspector-General of Jails.

From W. A. SYMONDS, Esq., Superintendent of Prisons for the Town of Madras, to the Inspector-General of Jails, Ootacamund, dated Madras, 22nd January 1878, No. 60.

I have the honor, in reply to your No. 7279, of 22nd December 1877, and supplementary to my No. 58 of 15th idem, to state that—

- I. Anthoo, late Masalchi of this jail, being sick, was granted temporary leave in August last, he providing an approved substitute, his son, to perform his duties.
- II. It was only when his state was found to be such that he could not return, that application was made for gratuity on his behalf by Captain Hallett (then Superintendent), who, by oversight, did not at the time obtain a medical certificate.
- III. The omission was pointed out and the medical authorities communicated with, but in meantime Anthoo died.

No. 49.

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL.

Certified that qualifying service in inferior grades has been duly proved for twenty-five years, five months, and thirteen days; and that an invalid gratuity not exceeding Rupees 42, equal to six months' pay, is admissible under Section 65 (a) of the Civil Pension Code (the calculations have been duly verified), should Government be pleased to accept the explanation regarding the applicant's removal from service without a medical certificate of unfitness.

2. From Memorandum No. 60, of 22nd January 1878, it appears that the applicant was granted leave being sick, and when it was found that his state of health was such that he could not return to duty, he was removed from service and a recommendation for gratuity was submitted. It was pointed out that a medical certificate was necessary, and while the matter was pending the applicant appears to have died; hence a medical certificate could not be obtained.

3. The Superintendent of Prisons states that the applicant left as nearest relatives his two sons, by name Adaikalam and Savithian, living together as undivided members.

Fort St. George,
26th April 1878.

(Signed) W. DONALD,
Offg. Deputy Accountant-General.

To the Under Secretary to Government, Pension Department.

ORDER THEREON, 21st May 1878, No. 195.

His Grace the Governor in Council is pleased to sanction the grant of an invalid gratuity of Rupees (42) forty-two in the name of Anthoo, lately a masalchi in the Civil Jail, Madras, and now deceased, and to authorize its being paid to his sons Adaikalam and Savithian.
