Para 1. The Additional Sub Collector's Office appears to have existed so far back as 1828, but the records of this District having been destroyed by fire during the insurrection of 1837 - the order, which Constituted the Office, is not forthcoming, nor is there any other record in the Office to show whether the Establishment was temporary or permanent.

It appears, however, that one Salvador D'Souza, the Ap-pleant's predecessor in the Office of Police Munshi on the Additional Sub Collector's Es-tablishment, was allowed to count his service for pension, Vide G.O. dated 28th April 1863, Pension Department, No. 124.

The Additional Sub
Collector's Office appears to have been abolished on the division of the District into North and South Canara in December 1859. (Vide G.O. dated 3rd December 1859, Revenue Dep^t.)

Para 2. The Applicant does not appear to have been allowed a lien on his permanent appointment nor does he appear to have resigned it.

Translation of the order of his appointment as Police Munshi, is herein enclosed as required.

Para 3. Applicant served on the Additional Sub Collector's Establishment till 30th June 1855, and it was through inadvertence that he was shown to have served till the 30th June 1856. The Office copy of the "History of the Service" of the applicant has been accordingly corrected, and an Extract from the same is herewith submitted so that Corresponding Corrections may be made in the original application already submitted.

Through the Accountant General Madras

Sir,

In submitting the accompanying application for a Superannuation Pension on behalf of Parsi Sarvottama Rao, late Salt Superintendent of Bandur in this District, I have the honor to state that the applicant, although counting a Superior Service of 36 years and odd, is barred from securing a pension equal to half his last salary in consequence of the average emoluments received by him during the five years preceding the date of his retirement, falling short of the limit required to entitle him to the full amount of pension. If the applicant had continued in his last appointment for a further period of 5 months and 28 days, he would have been entitled to a pension of 15 Rupees; but in the recent reorganisation of the Salt and Sea Customs Establishments of this district necessitated by the introduction of the Salt Excise system, the appointment of Salt Superintendent was abolished, and the applicant's retention in the new Department was found undesirable on the score of old age and incapacity. He was accordingly thrown out to make room for a more competent hand. Consequently the amount of pension to which he is entitled under the Rules is brought down to Rupees 14-8-1, or 7 annas and 11 pies less than 15 Rupees. He now prays that in consideration of his long service of nearly 40 years he may be allowed the full pension of 15 Rupees.

2. As the difference is very small, I trust that, in consideration of his exceptionally long service, the Government will be pleased to sanction the full amount of 15 Rupees to be paid to the Applicant.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most Obedt. Servt.

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL.

Certified that (subject to the remarks below) qualifying service in { ^{superior} } grades has been duly proved for — 34 — years — 1 — months and 13 days; and that a ^{pension} ~~deputation~~ deputation not exceeding Rs. 14-8-1 per annum, is admissible under Section — 60 — of the Civil Pension Code. The calculations have been duly verified.

In the re-organization of the Salt and Sea Customs Establishments, the applicant's post was abolished and another one was created on 35 Rs but the applicant was not provided with it as that course was found undesirable in the case of his old age and incapacity, hence the applicant could not be recommended by the collector for a compensation pension under Section 50 of the Code.

Order thereon 22 May 1878 N^o 197.

Under Sections 56 and 59 (c) of the Civil Pension Code (3rd Edition) His High Grace the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Parsi Sarvottama Rao late Salt Superintt of Baindur in the South Canara District a Superannuation pension of Rs (14-8-1) Fourteen Annas eight pice one per centum in consideration of his qualifying Superior Service of 34 years 1 month and 13 days, payable from the 9th October 1877.

of Rs 15 to Saravottama nothing in the case to justify its being exceptionally that the applicant would have been entitled to the additional 7 as Rs 11 Jrs had he served about six months longer but that he was superannuated as considered unfit for the vigorous work required on the introduction of the Salt Excise Act.

His claim could not be granted without the permission of the Govt of India no special grounds on which to send the case up. Indeed if the man was so inefficient he could not be kept on for so short a time he probably now gets more than he deserves.
