PENSION DEPARTMENT.

28th May 1878, No. 208.

Gratuity.

Read the following papers :—

From R. W. BARLOW, Esq., Collector of the Chingleput District, to the Accountant-General, dated Saidapet, 17th December 1877, No. 395.

In forwarding the enclosed register of application for gratuity on behalf of one K. Veerasami Naiken, late a Peon of the Conjeveram Taluq, I have the honor to state that the applicant, who was thrown out of employ in 1860 on the general revision of the taluq establishments by Mr. Pelly, was not re-employed since.

2. He applied for gratuity on the 19th January last. The application was referred to the Sub-Collector, who reported that the applicant died on the 20th August last (vide copy of letter enclosed). I request, therefore, that, in consideration of the services rendered by the deceased, you will be good enough to submit this case for the orders of Government in view to the gratuity to which he is entitled being paid to his legal heirs.

3. The long delay between the dates of the termination of the applicant's service and that of his application for gratuity cannot now be explained, the individual having died, but the delay of eleven months in submitting the application is due to the verification of the applicant's service from old records.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

From S. T. McCARTHY, Esq., Sub-Collector of Chingleput, to the Collector of Chingleput, dated Chingleput, 29th November 1877, No. 1136.

In returning herewith the petition from one Veerasami Naiken, lately a Peon in the Conjeveram Taluq, bearing your docket, No. 53, dated 24th January last, I have the honor to state that the petitioner died on the 20th August last at the relief-camp at Poonamallee, where he was employed as Peon. I am, therefore, unable to forward an application for the gratuity to which he was entitled under the rules.

2. The verified service list received from the Treasury Deputy Collector with the Conjeveram Tahsildar's arzi reporting the death of the petitioner is herewith forwarded.

From the Officiating Deputy Accountant-General, to the Collector of Chingleput, dated Fort St. George, 20th December 1877.

Audit Department.

Vide your application for gratuity on behalf of K. Veerasami Naiken, late Peon of Conjeveram Taluq.

The undersigned has the honor to inquire—

1. Whether there are no records other than the pay-bill to show the cause for the non-entry of the applicant's name in it from 15th to 31st August 1852.
2. Whether there are no records to show that the applicant has, or has not, already been allowed gratuity for his service.
3. Why no steps were taken by the Collector's Department to obtain for the applicant the gratuity to which he was entitled till he applied for it in January last.

4. Who are the legal heirs entitled to claim the gratuity if sanctioned by Government the applicant having been reported to have died on the 20th August last.

(Signed) W. DONALD,
Offg. Dy. Accountant-General.

From R. W. BARLOW, Esq., Collector of the Chingleput District, to the Accountant-General, dated Pulicat, 7th February 1878, No. 51.

Vide your office memorandum of 20th December last regarding application for gratuity on behalf of K. Veerasami Naiken, late Peon of Conjeveram Taluq.

1. There are no records other than the pay-bill to show the cause for the non-entry of the applicant's name in it from 15th to 31st August 1852.
2. There are no records to show that the applicant has already been allowed gratuity for his service.
3. On the services of the applicant being dispensed with by the introduction of Mr. Pelly's scheme he entered the Police Department but after some time resigned. As the applicant did not apply for the gratuity he was entitled to no steps were taken by this department to obtain it for him till he made the application in January last.
4. The legal heirs entitled to the gratuity, if sanctioned by Government, are his three sons, viz., Kanni Naiken, Moonesawmy Naiken, and Appasamy Naiken.

2. Why the applicant's service in the Police Department and his resignation of his appointment therein were not reported till the third point in the above memorandum was raised.
