From The ACCOUNTANT GENERAL

To The Chief Secretary to Government
Pension Department

Sir,

In reply to Memo from the Under Secretary Pension Department No 11 dated the 1st Instant, I have the honor to state that the service of Devaji Rao in the Devastanam Establishment was not reckoned towards pension, as at the time of his transfer to it, he was not serving Government in a qualifying grade - he was only an inferior servant, (a Sheriff) and as such had no claim to pension under the rules in force at the time for inferior servants - The subsequent order granting pension to inferior servants cannot, I consider be held to apply to the Cases provided for by Government of India No 409 G of 8 Sept. 1862 in as much as at the time of passing that order no pensionary provision existed for inferior servants; and the orders embodied in the Code have only I consider reference to service pensionable under its rules.

In the Case of Narayana Rao referred to, it would have been more correct of this office had reported that the service was deducted as he was not a Government superior servant though as he was not a Government servant at all, it was not considered necessary to raise the question of a superior or inferior service.

Should Government however be of opinion that the term Government servants as used in the Government of India Order of 1862. includes both inferior and superior servants, though to the former no pension was admissible at the time, I think a reference should be made to the Government of India in continuation of the reference which has already been made as ordered in G.O. No 181 dated 9th April 1877.
