2. They have served in the Revenue and Police Departments for the periods specified against against their names. Mahomed Saib No. 567 was formerly a temporary Jail peon for about 12 years. They are all stated to have borne a good character except No. 643 whose character is reported as "very indifferent". They are now unfit for further effective service of any kind as certified by the Annual Medical Invaliding Committee.

3. The first three in the list are entitled to the monthly invalid pensions entered against their names, equal to a third of their average pay for the five years last preceding according to proviso to Section 2 of the Police Superannuation Fund Rules and Sections 52 and 109 Scale A of the Civil Pension Code with effect from the 30th January 1878, in the case of Constable Issuf Saib No. 86. The other two are retained in service for light duty according to Rule 1, Section 55, of the Civil Pension Code.

4. The other three are entitled to the gratuities entered against their names according to Section 1. of the Police Superannuation Fund Rules and Sections 52 and 109 Scale A of the Civil Pension Code.

Joraver

Joraver Sing No. 661, subsequent to the date of his discharge from the force, died on the 20th February 1878, so that the amount of gratuity that may be sanctioned to him, may be ordered to be paid to his son Roopsing, the registered legal heir to his property according to Rule 2, Section 92, of the pension code. This Head Constable was quite unable to do even light work and was therefore sent before the medical Committee as requested by him.

5. With reference to non retention in service of Constable No. 643 Kristnia alias Kristna Row for 5 months and 1 day longer to enable him to obtain a pension in lieu of gratuity and of Constables Nos. 244, 86, and 567 for 4 months and 1 day and 5 months and 1 day to enable them to obtain an increased rate of pension, according to the Police Superannuation Fund Rules and the name of Issuf Saib No. 86 appearing in both the Revenue and Police Department service lists from 1st to 30th June 1860, the Superintendent of Police has given the following explanations:—

"Constable 643 is nearly blind and has been utterly unable to do any work for sometime; he was also anxious to go at once. Constable No. 86 was unable to walk and Constables Nos. 567 and 244 were both anxious to go at once and not to be kept on in the service."

'1st Class Constable No. 86 Issuf Saib was actually employed and paid from 1st June 1860 in the Police Department

as he is also shown to have received pay for that month in the Revenue Department there must have been some clerical error made at that time in one of the departments but in which it is now impossible to say."

I have the honor to be,
