2. They have served in the Police Department for the periods specified against their names and are are stated to have borne a good character except M. Ramachendraraz No. 680, P. Vencatasubbiah No. 354 and B. Vencaya No. 1389 whose character is reported as "indifferent". They are now unfit for further effective service of any kind as certified by a special medical Invaliding Committee which assembled at the District Head Quarter Station and by the local medical officer, in the case of Seetharamdoo and Vencatasubbiah.

3. The first seven individuals are entitled to the monthly invalid pensions entered against their names with effect from the 31st March 1878, equal to a third of their average pay for the five years last preceding according to proviso to Section 2 of the Police Superannuation Fund Rules and Sections 52 and 109 Scale A of the Civil Pension Code.

4. The other six men are entitled to the invalid gratuities entered against their names according to Section 1 of the Police Superannuation Fund Rules and Sections 52 and 109 Scale A of the Civil Pension Code.

5. As Constable Shaik Madar No. 814 and Ganda Ragavooloo No. 922 are reported to have have died subsequent to their discharge on the 22d May and 14th April 1878 respectively and the amount of pension that may be sanctioned to the former be paid to his widow Chitta Bee and the amount of gratuity due to the latter to his brother in-law Konia alias Konati (under whose protection his widow now remains), the registered heirs to their property according to Rule 2, Section 92, of the Civil Pension code.

6. Constables Vencata Subbia No. 354 and Seetharamdoo No. 713 were examined only by a single officer as the Divisional Inspector failed to send the former into Head Quarters in proper time and the whereabouts of the latter being unknown, he having been on leave at that time.

7. Delay in the submission of the rolls was caused on account of some men, who went to their Villages immediately after their discharge, having had to be called for.
