CERTIFIED that I have carefully examined Vellore Mohun Kistnaswamy Moodely son of Koopun Moodeliar

His age is by his own statement fifty six years, and by appearance about sixty years. I consider V. M. Kistnaswamy Moodeliar to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further service of any kind in the Department to which he belongs, in consequence of old age and general break down – His incapacity does not appear to me to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits.

Read report of Charges against Abkarri Conacapillai V. M. Kistnasawmy Moodelly and papers connected therewith.

Read also appeal Petition from Kistnasawmy Moodelly.

The Charges appear serious, but when analysed and considered with reference to the Conacapillays explanation, are in reality of very little consequence. The first six are all connected with the Conacapillays absence from duty on one day, the 30th January, which he explains by stating that he was obliged to remain at home to look after his daughter, his son-in-law having died a few days previously. His chief accuser is his own peon, who instead of doing the work he was ordered to do by the Conacapillay, through his (the peons) brother, disobeyed orders, went and and brought charges against him and got them backed by some of the Shopkeepers. There are wheels within wheels in all Abkari matters, and I happen to know that as regards this Conacapillai, frequent attempts have been made to get rid of him for many years, simply because he has given information to some of his superiors on different occasions of delinquencies committed by officials, Shopkeepers, bakers &c.—

In the very Case referred to by the Deputy Collector - see Board's Proceedings 4155 of 1858 Mr Cunliffe, so far from Considering him a bad character, says he is the best man, he has got, that he is the only man who can be trusted to look after the bakeries, that his information had largely increased the Government Revenue, and that frequent false charges were in Consequence got up against him.—

The same game has been played again now for the same reasons. The idea of Toddy Shopkeepers complaining

Complaining of a Conacapillay for not collecting rents, is rather too ridiculous, and so far from the Conacapillay being punished for not doing his duty, which is said to have been proved - the peon ought to have been punished for disobeying the Conacapillay's orders.—

The 7th and 8th charges are old charges revived, and nothing specific is proved regarding them. For the reasons given above, the Collector considers that the offence committed of absence from duty on one day is an extremely venial one, and resolves to Cancel the order of the Deputy Collector dismissing Kistnasawmy Moodly.

The fifth is proved by the evidence of the peon Bashiam and almost all the shopkeepers of his division. The sixth charge is proved by the receipts themselves and by one Ragavooloo. And the 7th and 8th charges were proved as stated in my letter of the 26th July last No 552 and by the Dy Collector's own personal knowledge. In defence the Curnam states that he is 19 years old in service and during that period he has been specially noticed as strictly honest and very deligent; that a series of family misfortunes have told upon him in his old age which renders it necessary for him to apply for leave on substitute for 3 months and then to obtain a pension. The records of the office show (1) that he is aged 51 y has served more than 18 years of which only 8 years are in the grade (2) that in 1858, it was found on evidence and his confession, that he had received bribes (Vide Bd No 4155 of 1858) (3) that on the 11th July 1862 he was convicted issued blank receipts to shopkeepers; with having fal the date of certain receipts; and made alteration in the kept in the office; and with having assaulted a pe the Abkarry department. (4) that, on the 28th Au he was further convicted with having had dealings w the shopkeepers under him, against the orders of Dept often made known to him. (5) that on the Septr 1862, he was convicted of having prevaric before, and submitted false reports to the Dy Collr who observes in the Tondal Tokeed that he lost all good opinion of the Curnam and that the Curn would soon feel the consequences. (6) that he was convicted on the 26th June 1873 with having submitted false report to the Abkarry Dept and uttered berate falsehood before the Dy Collr and with had dealings with the shopkeepers (Vide my letter of last No 552.)	Finding him gui charges mentioned 3, I dismiss the A from his post of a Curnam. 31st March

been personally engaged in law-suits and attend ed the Courts in person without leave to the detriment of the duty for which he was retain ed and paid for by Govt.

Taking these antecedents with the charges now proved against him, it is clear that he has been habitually neglectful in the discharge of his duties, habitually abusing his power, habitually uttering falsehoods, and habitually creating false evidence, It is also true that he is very often disobedient to his immediate superiors.

It is impossible to keep him any longer in office with any hope of securing efficient discharge of public duty by him. From the evidence above referred to it is clear that he was known to all the officers in charge of the Abkarry Dept from Mr Cunliffe to the present Dy Collector as a man in whom no confidence could be safely placed, and whose public morals were loose. The Dy Collr believes that the Certificates he holds from several European Gentlemen whom he appears to have served as a servant for many a year which he has produced and on which he chiefly bases his right to continue in the service should not any longer enable him to do so in the teeth of such proved charges against him particularly so, as he has to deal every day with Govt money. Under the system of granting blank receipts, duplicate receipts and falsely dated receipts, which he appears to have been practising for the last many years how much misappropriation of Govt money may have been committed by him, it is difficult now to say.

Sir,

I have the honour to forward for the orders of Government an application for gratuity on behalf of V. M. Krishnasami Mudeli, Canacapillay in the Quit Rent Department of the Madras Deputy Collector's Office. The applicant's service book and the medical certificate declaring his incapacity for further service are enclosed.

Encl. 3

2. Krishnasami Mudeli's service is partly in inferior and partly in superior grades. Under Section 66 of the Civil Pension Code he has elected to take a gratuity on his superior service and the maximum amount payable under Section 59 of the Code is 135 Rs. i.e. 9 Months' pay. The Deputy Collector of Madras recommends the full amount, but as Krishnasami Mudeli does not appear to have given thorough satisfaction in his work, I deem it necessary to lay before Government, the following remarks and leave it to them to make any reduction in the amount in accordance with Section 68 of the Code.

3. Krishnasami Mudeli was first employed as a Conacapillay in the Abkari Department and from a certificate given by Collector Mr Cunliffe appears, up to the date of that certificate to have been discharging his duties to the satisfaction of his superiors. In January 1875, however, he incurred the displeasure of Deputy Collector Ragoonatha Rau by repeated disobedience of orders and he was suspended for a month from office. In October 1875 he was transferred to the Quit Rent Department and it is to be noted that from October 1875 up to the date of his resignation, viz 11th January 1878, he has not performed any work in the Quit Rent Department.

REMARKS BY HEAD OF OFFICE.

1. As to character and past conduct of Applicant. Satisfactory testimonial is held from a former Collector Mr K. Cunliffe, who certified to his activity in detecting frauds. The late Dy Collr Mr R. Ragunath Row however ~~[illegible]~~ wrote ill of him & his remarks seem to me to refer to his private character — a tale bearer. I would give him the benefit of Mr Cunliffe's favorable opinion

2. Explanation of any suspension or degradation. From 26th January to 25th February 1875, being one month, for disobeying the orders of the superiors, & for delaying to send his diary for inspection.

3. Regarding any gratuity or pension already received by Applicant. See Chapter XX. None.

4. Explanation under Section 47, Rule 1, so far as the Head of the Office can give it. None.

5. Any other remarks. Medical certfte dated 8th & 11th January /78 accompanies.
