Sir,

Enclosures. None

In continuation of this Office letter no 3,659 of the 19th Instant, I have the honor to subjoin the explanation of the Superintendent of Police Bellary, on the points promised in para 4 of that letter:-

"The delay in submitting the rolls has arisen from the excessive difficulty in tracing out the rates of pay drawn by the men from time to time in the District over a long period of years. Every care will be taken to prevent similar delays for the future. Constable No. 213 was in the Hospital under treatment for asthma from March 1877 and was so emaciated that he was altogether unable to perform any duty. Constable No. 100 was not willing to serve on for pension although the rules were specially explained on the point. Further he was very emaciated and crippled from age and was unfit for any duty. Under the above circumstances the constables were not retained in the service to complete the period of 18 years."

in
