Memo: 937 concluded

The applicant resigned his appointment in 1873 of his own accord but reserving his claim for pension or gratuity and requested that his son may be appointed to his post. The then Collector considering the applicant too old (70 years) for public service, allowed him to retire and appointed his son for the post. He did not think it necessary to recommend him for gratuity as his son got the appointment.

2. Copies (with translations) of the Nandikotkur Tahsildar's arzi forwarding the applicant's petition and of the Collector's order thereon are forwarded herewith.

3. "Bondeli" is the name of the caste and "Paramanchala" that of the village to which the applicant belonged and he was known by either name. The village name was entered in the annual list of peons for 1866.

4. The application is resubmitted with the column "How verified" duly filled in.

Petition presented by Gangaram Revenue peon on the establishment of the Nandikotkur Taluq to P. Vedagiry Moodr. Tahsildar of Nandikotkur.

I am now very old, my age being 70 years. I therefore find it quite impossible to perform my duties properly any longer. I have a son named Tekaramsing aged about 20 years. I beg that he may be appointed in my stead and gratuity be given me. Before the Company's rule here, I served under the Nawab (mogul) for 24 years. Ever since the commencement of the British Government (nearly 33 years) I have been serving this Government zealously without the slightest stain on my character. I humbly request you will kindly appoint my son as my successor and obtain sanction for my gratuity. I am a poor man with a large family and therefore have made this request.

1st September 1873. (Signed) Gangaram.

Takeed from J. Hope Esquire Acting Collector of Kurnool to P. Vedagherry Moodr. Tahsildar of Nandikotkur dated, Kurnool, 15th September 1873, No 363.

Read Arzi No 351 recommending that one Teekaramsing may be appointed for the post of peon in the Taluq of Nandikotkur in the place of his father Gangaram who is reported to be too old for further service, being 70 years old, and that a gratuity may be granted to the latter.

As it is recommended that Teekaramsing is 20 years old and is fit for the post, he is appointed for the post of his father. No gratuity can be given to Gangaram as his post has been given to his son.

Arzee from Tahsildar of Nandikotkur to Acting Collector of Kurnool dated, Nandikotkur, 8" September 1873 No 351.

Taluq Peon Gangaram states that he is quite incompetent to perform his duties owing to his extreme old age (70 years) and requests that his son Teekaramsing may be appointed in his stead. His statement is true. I have personally seen his son also. He is about 20 years old and is quite fit to be a peon. I therefore recommend that Teekaramsing may be appointed in lieu of his father.

The peon further requests that a gratuity may be given him in consideration of his long service. What he says is true and I beg to recommend that this request also may be complied with. His arzee is herein enclosed.

To.

C. J. Keon Esquire
Spl. Aptt. Collector
Kurnool.

The humble petition of Bondili Gangaram of Paramanchala and lately a peon in the Taluq Cutcher Nandikotkur.

With reference to your honor's endorsement No 1292 asking why the petitioner did not apply for pension till 22nd October the dat on which my petition requestin for a grant of pension was presented to your honor, and als to report about my age, I beg to submit the following.

I served for a period of 18 years during the Mahomedan rule of the Country. From the year Vikari when the British Connection with Kurnool bega till 1876 I had served with great zeal as a peon in the Nandi-kotkur and Atmakur Taluq without the slightest stain on my character. Being very old in 1876 I got my post conferred on my son Tekaram and proposed to send in my application for pension forthwith when a few gentlemen misled me by saying that I could not get any pension as my son had got my post and as he would support me in my old age. I did not therefore apply for pension. To my great misfortune my son died from Cholera three months ago. I have none who could protect me. I am an old man of 75 years and cannot do any work. I have no property on which I can live. I am a very poor man and therefore request your honor will kindly grant me pension & protect me and my family.

For this act of kindness I shall ever pray

(Signed) Gangaram.
