1 The service of 1 year & 1 month in the Postal Departt has been disallowed, as the applicant was unemployed for the space of one month in the interim. But this being no fault of his, as explained in the remark column of the Register, the one year & one month's service may be accepted, if the Accountt General sees fit.

2 The applicant having been on furlough leave from 1st Jan^y to 21st November 1865, his name was improperly left out in the annual list of Establishments on the 1st April 1865.

3 The items 10811 in the 1st page of the Register of application have been incorrectly entered as Rupees 67-2-4 & 23-6-1, instead of Rupees 60820, respectively. The undersigned requests to cause the necessary alterations to be made in the original Register in the Accountt General's Office. The office copy of the Register has been altered accordingly.

In the last communication he was informed that if he delayed any longer he would be reported to Government. In a letter dated 11th March 1878. I, after seeing the papers connected with the case, passed the endorsement of which a copy is enclosed. He appeared on the 10th April. A reminder was sent to the Dy Collector in charge Treasury on the 18th calling upon him for a verified Statement of petitioner's Services in this Department. This was received on the 4th Instant and I sent it back to the office for further information as I was not made aware then that Somasundaram Chetty had served in other Departments. The reference was made by me on the 11th, the papers having followed me into Camp, and the application and documents upon which this explanation has been written reached me yesterday evening.

7. The delay, it will be apparent, is almost entirely, if not quite attributable to Somasundaram Chetty himself. Had I had to deal with the case from the beginning I would possibly have put more pressure than was used upon this man, but as
