1st Class Constable Barla Venkatasawmy No 865 for 16 - 4 - 25 service Rs 4 - 13 - 5 do 18th September 1878	AW application for the grant of pensions to two of the individuals named in the Margin of the Kistna District.

2. They have served in the Police Force for the periods specified against their names. Head Constable Kumbhala Kotaya No 652 is not stated stated to have been previously employed in the Settlement Department temporarily for 8 months and Constable Barla Venkatasawmy No. 865 in the Revenue Department, application for a statement of his service there was made to the Collector on 15th June 1878 but no reply has yet been received. As this previous inferior service will not give additional benefit to the man, the service list has not been waited for. They are stated to have borne "good" and "fair" characters and are discharged as unfit for further effective service on Medical Certificates of the local medical officers as the Deputy Surgeon General is not to visit the District this year and as a Committee of two medical officers could not be convened in the District.

3. These individuls are entitled to the monthly invalid pensions entered against their names with effect from the dates noted, being a third of their average pay for 5 years last preceding according to proviso to section 2 of the Police Superannuation Fund Rules and sections 52 (a) and 109 Scaled of the Civil Pension Code.

4. Explanation for the previous service of these men not having been ascertained and verified before their actual retirement as required by G.O. No. 581 dated 25th October 1877 and the cause of delay in submitting the roll of Head Constable Kotayya have been called for from the District and will be forwarded if required, when received.

Certified that I have carefully
Kumbhala Kotayah, son of Kumbhala 4th Grade Head constable no. 652, in the District Police Force.

His age is by his own statement 55 ye appearance about the same. I consider Ku Kotayah to be completely and permanent ted for further service of any kind in the
to which he belongs in consequence of lep old age.

This incapacity does not appear to been caused by irregular and intem
