Certified that we J. Lorkson D. Surgeon General, J. M. D. S. D. & H. D. Cook Civil Surgeon Malabar have carefully examined European Head Constable No 452. N. Woolger son of G. Woolger in the Malabar District. His age is by his own statement 37 years, and by appearance about 37 years, and we consider ^{N. Woolger} him to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further service of any kind in the Police Department in consequence of enlarged spleen and his incapacity does not appear to us to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits.

Read the following despatch from the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for India A. 4, Judicial, dated 25th February 1875 disposing of the appeal of N. Woolger, late Head Constable against his dismissal in 1871.

Order thereon of 20 April 1875. A. 939.

Having regard to the opinion expressed by the Secretary of State on this case, the Governor in Council deems it right to direct that Woolger and the Native constables who were on the same occasion dismissed should be restored to the position in the Force which they occupied in July 1871 before the occurrences which gave rise to this correspondence. The Inspector General of Police will take the necessary steps to give effect to this order and will in due course report his action in the matter.

2. The Secretary of State will be addressed further on the other matters noticed in the Despatch.

Sir,

In forwarding to you copy of preliminary Register Case No 9 of 1871 on my file I desire to bring to your notice the conduct of the constables in the case and in my opinion they should be no longer entertained in the force. Head Constable Woolger only acted with common prudence in the enquiry of the case of murder or had as he said in his diary, he would charge the man at once before my Court of having preferred a false charge an investigation into the matter would have at once shown whether a murder had been committed or not, but it is palpable that Woolger purposely delayed the enquiry for months, that he applied for warrants to the Sub Magistrate Godalore instead of to the Sub Magistrate Vythangur merely to cause delay, that when the warrant was obtained it was needlessly detained in execution, and the case held back until Woolger was powerless in keeping it back any longer by Inspector D'Orville returning to his range whether murder or not Woolger's conduct throughout shows his utter unfitness for the post of a Head Constable and there is besides the confession against him of Constable No 100 in having taken a bribe in this case.

Deputy Constable Govindoo Swamy is equally culpable and it was clearly proved in the enquiry that in an Verji received from the Godalore Sub Magistrate he added a line that the Adighary should also with him inquire and report. The Sub Magistrate Verji did not contain such order

I presume the confession of Constable No 100 would bear his being longer entertained in the police

Report

The accompanying roll is submitted with a request that the officers mentioned ⁱⁿ it may be dismissed for gross violation of their duty. In April last one Goorbar complained at the Police Station, Kulpetta (Wynad) that his sister, Neelak was murdered by her husband Pella petta Pordah.
Death was said to have been caused by a blow inflicted with a stick on the stomach. The accused's motive in committing this act was because Neelak sold a fowl to a village official without her husband's permission.
The S. D. O. Hd. Con. Govindaswamy reported the fact to Hd. Con. Woolger who in the absence of Inspector D. Crub on leave had temporary charge of the Division. The two men accompanied by the constables proceeded to the spot, and to save themselves the trouble of enquiring into the case, submitted a report that deceased had died of cholera, and that Goorbar's complaint was a false and malicious one. The case was referred as "false" to Mr. Underwood the Deputy Magistrate of Wynad who in the following month (May) ordered it to be "struck off" and Goorbar was directed to be prosecuted under sections 182 and 211 P.C.
On the return of Inspector D. Crub to his Division in the end of June he ascertained that the death of deceased had been caused by violence as originally reported by Goorbar. A warrant had been issued for the arrest of the latter by the Sub Magistrate of the Vythi (under sections 182 and 211 P.C.) but no steps had been taken by either Hd Constable Woolger or Govindasawmy to prosecute him. On the contrary, Woolger was employed as a servant in Govindasawmy's house with the knowledge of Hd Constable Woolger for more than 15 days after the warrant had been issued. Inspector Dorn's enquired into the death of deceased at the spot early in July and it was perfectly clear from the statements made before him by two children residing in deceased's house that the latter had fallen and had soon afterwards died from a blow which P. Pordah inflicted in his stomach. The corpse was exhumed owing to decomposition the Medical officer was unable to account for the cause of death but he was clearly of opinion that deceased had not died of cholera from the fact of rice and other food having been found by him in the stomach. No cases of cholera had occurred anywhere ^{in Wynad} ~~in Wynad~~ at the time of deceased's death. The Deputy Magistrate committed (1) P. Pordah to the session Court for the murder of deceased (2) the 4 Police officers (mentioned in roll) together with two others ^{under} ~~under~~ Secs. 201 and 221 P.C. and (3) Hd Constable Govindasawmy, under sec. 344 P.C. Evidence to establish a murder was not considered sufficient by the Sessions Court. This having failed the other events failed also and all the prisoners were released.

The Supt. does not consider it advisable that the 11 officers should be retained in the force after such an exhibition of untrustworthy conduct. He requests that they may be dismissed with forfeiture of arrears of pay.
