From L. C. PROBYN, Esq., Accountant-General, to the Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Fort St. George, 21st November 1878, No. 6401.

Audit Department.

With reference to Proceedings of Government in the Pension Department, No. 494, dated the 30th ultimo, I have the honor to forward copy of correspondence which passed between the Government of India and this office in July 1877, regarding the mode of calculating retiring allowances of Uncovenanted Assistants in the Revenue Survey Department. The Government of India have not informed me that the views expressed in this office letter are wrong, and, as the report on Mr. Wright's application for pension was framed in accordance therewith, I respectfully request that His Grace the Governor in Council will be pleased to submit the Proceedings of Government under reference to the Government of India for confirmation.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

From E. J. SINKINSON, Esq., Officiating Under Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Accountant-General, Madras, dated Simla, 11th July 1877, No. 1702.

I am directed to inquire whether the tentage and fixed travelling allowance of Uncovenanted Assistants in the Revenue Survey Department in Madras were counted towards pension in 1870, and whether they are still so counted.

ENCLOSURE No. 2.

From W. DONALD, Esq., Officiating Accountant-General, to the Financial Secretary to the Government of India, dated Fort St. George, 28th July 1877, No. 4731.

Audit Department.

In reply to your letter, No. 1702, dated 11th July 1877, inquiring whether tentage and travelling allowance of Uncovenanted Assistants in the Revenue Survey Department were counted towards pension in 1870, and whether they are still so counted, I have the honor to state that no officer of the class referred to appears to have retired from service during the past fifteen years. The pay and allowances of the Uncovenanted Officers in the Madras Revenue Survey Department were generally consolidated during the year 1872, while those of the following four officers had been previously consolidated under special orders marginally noted:—

Government of India, No. 2209, April 16th, 1868.
" " 1805, August 22nd, "

Mr. Puckle.
" Beaumont.
" Wright.
" Cardozo.

Hence it is presumed that the amount of pension admissible to all officers at present in the enjoyment of consolidated salaries should be regulated by the rules under Section 71 of the Civil Pension Code.

ORDER THEREON, 5th December 1878, No. 576.

The Government see no reason to reconsider their order declining to make any further reference on this subject.
