From the General Duty Deputy Collector

To

Sahildang Wandawath.

I am in due receipt of your Arzi No. 7/9 dated 16th August, in reply to my order directing you to examine and report the particulars regarding the erasure to be found on the name of one Peria Shandavaraya Goundan, in the Register for Samsy 1282 containing the entries of Relinquishment in Peria Shaugul Village. Read also Arzi No. 405 of this year which relates to this case.

2. You have submitted certain particulars to the following effect, viz:- that no fodi - relinquishment was given to any of the lands, which are obtained on Warkhast

FEBRUARY.

Pension.—Granting a Superannuation pension of Rupees 6 per mensem to T. Appa Rao, late Gunstah, Wandavath Taluq, North Arcot District.

by Peria Shandavaraya Goundan, father of the petitioner, Kuppu Goundan; that it is said that only the Poonja lands had been puttahi, and the Nanjah lands are not registered in the puttah; that it is understood that, in Husli 1281, Poonjah land No. 101-Cawny 1-8-0, and in Husli 1282, Nanjah land No. 197, Cawny 0-3-0, carrying a Rent of Rupees 1-5-2, had been obtained by the said Peria Shandavaraya Goundan; that the Kanakan Ramakistna Pillai says that in Husli 1282, the said Shandava-raya Goundan relinquished nanjah lands in question Cawny 0-3-0; that as regards the erasure in the Razinamah Register, Gumastah Appu Rao handed the Jodi Razinamahs of the said village for Husli 1282, over into the hands of the Kanakan Ramakistana Pillai for reference during the time of Yamabandi; and that the latter did not return them afterwards.

3. It is evident from the Records
that the Kanakan Ramakistna Pillai had not, with a view to deceive, made any entry in the Puttah Chittah, of lands Nanjah No. 197 Cawny 0-3-0 carrying a Rent of Rupees 1-5-2, obtained by Peria Shandavaraya Goundan in Husli 1282; that on the demise of Shandavaraya Goundan, his son, Kuppu Goundan, having complained regarding the said matter before the Taluk officer, the said Kanakan has fraudulently entered the same land in the Relinquishment Register of the said Husli, in order to fabricate false evidence, that no relinquishment petition had been received respecting the same; that the said Kanakan has received and destroyed the rest of the Razinamahs relating to the said Village, for the purpose of concealing the receipt of the said Razinamah; and that Gamastah Appu Rao, who has duty it is to secure the Razinamahs, and prepare a Register of them, has either assisted the Kanakan by connivance, or has grossly neglected his duties

4. In the Relinquishment Register, the names of 8 persons belonging to the village of Periam Shangal are entered. The names of 7 persons, Appu Rao has entered in his own handwriting. The last written name of Peria Shondava Raya Goundan, without being written in the handwriting of Appu Rao, is written by some other body. Appu Rao says that this same 8th name, without being entered when the Register was prepared, was newly entered therein. If his statement is to be believed at all, it is to be so without corroboration. For, in order, that his own statement might be fully established, the Jodi Razinamahs of that village, should all of them be found. As they are not so to be found, the strongest suspicion arises on the matter. In your Taluk, deceptions are frequently practised. In Elangadu Raguathu Chetty's case, regarding the Transfer Razinamah in Frachy 1282, deceptions had been practised.

5. It is the duty of Appu Rao to produce the Razinamahs belonging to this village of Periam Shangal for Frachy 1282.
Appu Rao says that he gave them to the hands of the Kanakan for reference, and that he forgot to see them returned to the Office.
The Kanakan says that he returned them then and there. It cannot be ascertained positively whether, as Appu Rao says, this was owing to his forgetfulness, or owing to his assistance, by connivance, to the Kanakaw in taking away and destroying the Razinama's for the purpose of making the complaint of Kuppah Gowdan, fruitless. Appu Rao who ought to have kept the said Razinama's securely is ~~to be~~ charged with carelessness in having lost them. For this remissness of duty Appu Rao is suspended from duty for 2 months. I regret that such a thing as this happened at a time when he is nearly eligible for pension.

6. Kanakaw Ramakistunapillai is, not, in the least, a fit object for reliance. But as there is no proof against him, it does not seem feasible either to dismiss him or conduct the prosecution against him on the Magisterial side. Neither does it seem right to leave him unpunished in this case. Therefore he is suspended for 2 years from all his account duty in all his villages.

7. You must immediately make the necessary arrangements for the safe custody of the Records. For this purpose, nominate one permanent Gumatih, on whom reliance can be placed, and two permanent peons and report their names to the Magistrate. If you do not make these arrangements it will be presumed that you are careless in respect to the safe custody of the Records. If the said permanent Establishment does not keep the Records safe & without any alterations therein they will be held responsible.

8. Appu Rao's suspension is to take effect from the 1st October. Leshiah, 1st Clerk in this office has been appointed to act vice Appu Rao. He will be ordered to present himself before you.

9. Appoint a fit person to act for Kannan Ramakrishna Pillai and report the same.

10. As you have submitted that no blame attaches to the Record from Ramasamy Naik, he is left unpunished. He is to be warned that he should look after the circular business with diligence and trustworthiness. The enclosures are herewith returned.

4. Explanation under Section 47, Rule 1, so far as the Head of the Office can give it. None

5. Any other remarks.

The applicant was found to be inefficient and unfit for further active service owing to infirmity from age. His service book is herewith sent. The delay in the submission of his application is due partly to the time taken up for verifying the services of the applicant from the Taluk and Taluk Records and partly to the delay in obtaining copies of the documents sent to the Privaattoor No. 2.
