pension on the ground that there was break in my service and thereby feited about 18 years servi- therefore avail myself of this opportunity to bring to your notice that it is true that I resigned my post as Peon in Madras on the 7th September 1847 but I have been entertained again in service through the influence of Mr Prendergast in the Rajahmundry Collectorate on the 15th April 1848. On your reference, the present Collector of the Godavery District seems to have ~~been~~ mistaken in informing you that my entertainment in the Rajahmundry Collectorate begins from [illegible] th Nove 1849. and thus it led your honor to think that there was a break in service
