1. The applicant's full name is Ranga. But he is also called Barkur Ranga, Barkur being his native place.
2. The applicant was examined by the Civil Surgeon and declared unfit for further service before his removal, a formal certificate however was not furnished at the time, a new one in the prescribed form has therefore been obtained when submitting the pension application.
3. The delay in the submission of the application was chiefly owing to the long time taken in verifying and correcting applicant's service book as well as to the necessity for procuring his presence for a second examination by the Civil Surgeon before obtaining a formal certificate.
4. Previous to 1862, the port of Mulky was only a subport to Mangalore. Hence the establishment of that port then formed part of the Establishment of the Mangalore Port.
