Accountant General calling for certain information regarding application for pension on behalf of late

Draftsman Rosulabba Row.

I have the honour to point out that this man was not discharged on account of inefficiency but on reduction of Establishment.

2. This Draftsman became a superannumerary on reorganization of Establishment in December 1877. His service appears to have been quasi permanent under the provisions of section 24 of the code but section 23 does not appear to bear on the case.

3. The applicant would have been retained in the service had the reduction not been ordered by Government in G.O. dated 25 June 1877.
