Sir,

With reference to your letter of the 19th Instant, I have the honor to request that you will be good enough to furnish me with some information as to the capacity in which Mr. Wright claims pension for service at Coimbatore. Coimbatore has never had a Zillah School, but Mr. Wright might have been employed in the Anglo Vernacular Grant-in-aid school there. He probably was also Curator of the Local Book Depot.

Memorandum on the report of the Supdt. of Police, Coimbatore regarding receipt Wright.
It has come to light that 7 cases (at least) of House breaking by night have occurred since Feb. 1876 in Coimbatore Town without any report being made by the Police - Inspdt. Wright admits having been cognisant of a case in Feb. 76 in which female was injured - It appears that two houses were searched in this case and yet no entry was made in the Register and the case was suppressed. There is evidence that the other cases were reported to the Police - It can hardly be possible that Mr. Wright did not know of them. But if, as he states, he was ignorant of the occurrence of these crimes this only shows his unfitness to work as Town Police force. In point of fact Mr. Wright's working in the Town of Coimbatore has long long been most unsatisfactory and has only been kept there because he was still too fit to work a Division away from the Superintendent's immediate eye - Mr Wright has been in the Force since 1860. He has risen to the 2^d Class - more it would seem because he has a large family than for any merits of his own - The Police Dept^y is not a charitable institution and if the Govt give Mr Wright the means of supporting his family he is bound to give good and honest work in return - In the present case he has shown himself both inefficient and untrustworthy and a repetition of such conduct will necessitate dismissal notwithstanding his long service - Mr Wright is reduced to the 3^d class for the grave misconducts he has committed which has evidently tended to demoralise the force working under him - Per C.
