From A. C. TUPP, Esq., Officiating Accountant-General, to the Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Fort St. George, 16th June 1879, No. 2384.

Treasury Account Department.

With reference to the Proceedings of Government, No. 223, dated the 9th ultimo, Pension Department, sanctioning the grant of an invalid pension of Rupees 3 per mensem to G. Aiyalu Nayadu (Naidu), lately a Peon in the Saidapet Taluk, Chingleput District, I have the honor to point out that the period of his non-employment, viz., ten months and twenty days, consequent upon his dismissal from the service on 11th November 1846, cannot be treated as a period spent under suspension followed by reinstatement. It will be observed that the Government of India letter, No. 3873, dated 24th October 1873, Financial, quoted, rules that dismissal followed by reinstatement within a brief period is equivalent to suspension and empowers the Local Government to dispose (without reference to the Government of India) of cases like that of Chettri Ramsing, then under reference, in which the interval of non-employment was only seven days. The provisions of that letter cannot, however, I respectfully submit, apply to cases like the present, where the period of the applicant's non-employment extends over nearly eleven months.

Under these circumstances, I beg respectfully to request that His Grace the Governor in Council will be pleased either to reconsider the order under acknowledgment, or to report the concession in question for the orders of the Government of India.

ORDER THEREON, 24th July 1879, No. 420.

The Government see no reason to reconsider the order referred to by the Accountant-General or to forward it to the Government of India.

2. They observe that (as pointed out therein), the Collector when reinstating the applicant whom he previously dismissed put it on record that the period during which the man was without employment was "an adequate punishment" for his offence and thus virtually converted the dismissal into suspension.
