Certified that we Surgeon I. Smith & A. N. Rogers Harrison have carefully examined 2nd Grade H. Const. M. Yerriah son of M. Kolliah in the Vizagapatam District. His age by his own statement 48 years and by appearance about 48 years. We consider M. Yerriah to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further service of any kind in the department to which he belongs, in consequence of old age and general debility.

his incapacity does not appear to us to have been caused by irregular or, intemperate habits.

The humble petition represented by Mr. Erskine late Inspector of Police G. Division in Vizagapatam Distt.

The humble Showeth —

Your petitioner begs permission to bring to your notice the following few lines for information that he was first entertained in the Golcondah Sebundies as a Private on the 10th March 1848 and was gradually made Native Officer; — and while he was at Golcondah on command with a Detachment, he had to visit your honor on your last tour to it, and informed your the circumstances thereof. He was also recommended by Major D. G. Owen the commander of the Sebundies and was accordingly appointed as an Inspector to the Division.

He was dispensed with his services under the conditions of not detecting great many cases, but he begs your honor will graciously be pleased to appoint him to the former berth now called Head constable or on same salary should he be considered unfit for an Inspectorship —

His services since his entertainment are 15½ years and was well trained in drilling &c — He further prays that you will kindly be pleased to issue orders to the Superintendent of Police of the District as to take him on as an Instructor of the Drill &c at Head Quarters — He is to maintain a great family, being situated in a poor condition and therefore solicits that his family & himself will be protected and be provided for with some kind of livelihood — Your petitioner begs to expect a favorable answer on the subject through Major Back Superintendent of Police —

Appellant M Yerkiah.
late 6th Class Inspector of Police Vizagapatam District

Petitioner was transferred as an Inspector of Police 6th Grade from the Golcondah Sebbundies on the incorporation of that corps with the Genl Police

Petitioner has been on Probation since the 1st of Feby 1862. he has been repeatedly warned that if he did not exert himself and show more fitness, his connection with the Police must cease.

The Supt on visiting Inspector Jetheles Division found not only that the Inspr.
himself had neglected his duty and disregarded orders & instructions - but that every constable was doing what, and as little as he liked -

The Division was in the most lamentable confusion - no order - no instruction, no attempt to check crime rife, but disregarded alike
by Inspector & Constables

The detection has been nil - not even an entry made in the Registers to trace a case -

The Dy Inspector Genl reported in the 1/2 yearly returns of Inspection the state of this division - and the Inspector Genl in Memo 2048 dated 4-8-63
directed that he be discharged connection with the Force to cease -

The D.I.G. cant recommend that this idle man be readmitted into the Police Force in any grade.
