This writer has given me great satisfaction in the way he has discharged his duties although only 16 months in the Service of Government he was for many years previous to his entertainment on the 28 th January 1863, a Volunteer Writer in the Pay Office and from the intelligence, zeal and ability he displayed during that time, I had no hesitation in taking him on as the 2 nd Writer on the Pay Office Establishment on the discharge of Karasima Charier. P. Coomaraswamy thoroughly understands the preparation of Muster Rolls Abstracts &c. and his returns are always made out with great neatness and correctness.

Wally Cooper in the above. Mr. Cooper has written papers since March 1863 in the Pay Office, and has given me entire satisfaction by the way in which he has performed his duties.
