Certified that I have carefully examined Mungamoor Subbaramiah, son of Mungamoor Ramasastrulu, a Deputy Inspector of the Revenue Settlement, North Arcot. His age is by his own statement 50 years and by appearance about 55 years. I consider M Subbaramiah to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further service of any kind in the Department to which he belongs in consequence of general debility resulting from Diabetes. His incapacity does not appear to me to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits.

FROM THE ACCOUNTANT GENERAL, MADRAS,

TO THE Director of Revenue Settlement

VIDE ~~your~~ Application for Pension on behalf of M. Subbaramayya late Deputy Inspt. of Rev. Settlement North Arcot Party

THE undersigned has the honor to enquire

1. Why in the annual returns of 1860 and 1861, the applicant's pay is shewn as Rs 50, and 40 respectively while it is stated in the Register of application that the pay for the former year was Rs 40 and that for the latter Rs 50 a month.
2. Whether the appointment of the applicant as Extra Dy Inspector from 1st May to 31st October 61, was as if permanent though the prefix Extra had been used. If not why was that period of Service considered pensionable.
3. Why the applicant's name was entirely omitted from the annual

annual return of 1st April /78 while he appears to have been in service upto 17th November 1878.

4. Why was it found impossible to verify the applicant's services fully from the Records of the Settlement Departt.?

North Arcot

Sir,

In reply to your Endorsement No. 1095/100 dated the 23rd instant on the Accountant General's reference No. A.Ch.K/148, I have the honour to submit the following explanation to the queries relative to the application for pension on behalf of M. Subbaramayya.

2. Mr. Subbaramayya held the post of Deputy Inspector on Rs. 40 from the 10th January 1859 to the 30th June 1865. During that that period he acted as Extra Deputy Inspector on Rs 50 from the 1st May 1864 to 31st October 1864. I am unable to say why the Pay is shown as Rs 50 in the annual return of 1860. The latter return must have been rendered from the Godavery party and is not available to refer to. The annual return for 1864 shows the pay to be Rs 40. Perhaps the pay can be further verified from the Salary bills of the Godavery party in the or Central Office-

2. Whilst employed as Extra Deputy Inspector from 1st May to 31st October 1864, M. Subbaramaiya retained a lien on his permanent post referred to above above. The period of Service was therefore pensionable-

3. The applicant, and other Servants of the party were doing duty with the Chingleput party, and their pay was drawn in that District. In preparing the annual return of 1st April 1878 only the names of those for whom pay may have been drawn for March were included. It was considered that those whose pay may have been drawn under other parties, would be returned under those parties-an erroneous idea that is likely to lead to complications. M. Subbaramayya's name should be looked for under the return from the Chingleput Party. He was on leave then, and another member of this party was acting then for him.

to

4. The applicant's services were verified from the records of this Office from 1861 to 1878. Prior to 1861 his services were in the Godavery District, hence his Settlement services in that District could not be verified in the absence of any records for that District in this Office. Probably the period can be verified in the Central Office. The entry I may remark is according to

to the service details supplied from the Godavery Party.

I have the honor to be
Sir,
Your most obt. servant.

Forwarded to the Accountant General with the following remarks.

Para 1. It appears from the duplicate copies of pay bills in the Central Office that though the pay sanctioned for the post of Deputy Inspector was Rs. 50 the sum actually drawn and paid to the applicant was Rs. 40 only according to the practice which existed in this Department

some time ago.

2. The appointment of the applicant as extra Deputy Inspector is pensionable as he had a lien on his substantive appointment.

3. A reference to the annual return of 1878 which should have been sent to the Accountant General's Office by the Deputy Director of No. IX Party Chingleput, may show the entry of the applicant's name.

4. The applicant's service prior to 1861 has now been verified as noted below to the extent to which the pay bills are available in this Office, and it is requested that his remaining service may be
