Letter from Government of Fort St. George, No. 545, dated 23rd November 1878, received in the Department of Revenue, Agriculture, and Commerce, resubmitting the papers on Devaji Rao's claim to a pension equal to one-third of average emoluments.

RESOLUTION.—Devaji Rao's claim to a pension equal to one-half of average emoluments is invalidated in consequence of his service in a Devastanum establishment and as Stamp Daroga having been excluded in calculating service qualifying for pension; but with reference to the orders contained in Resolution in the Financial Department, No. 388, dated 25th January 1879, allowing service in Devastanum establishments in certain cases to count towards pension, the Governor-General in Council authorizes the extension of the same benefit to Devaji Rao. This will give Devaji Rao a qualifying service exceeding twenty-five years, and he is accordingly admitted to a superannuation pension of Rupees (30) thirty a month equal to one-half of average emoluments with effect from the 1st July 1877 in lieu of the pension of Rupees 20 a month already granted to him.
