Pension.

Read the following paper:—

From T. MOOTHOSAAMY, to the Acting Chief Secretary to Government, dated Pondicherry, 14th March 1879.

I, the undersigned Chiroo Moothosawmy Pillay, late Sayer Aminah of Valdaoor, in the South Arcot District, do hereby most humbly beg leave to submit this my poor request to the consideration of His Excellency the Governor in Council.

2. I am actually drawing my poor pension of Rupees 6 in the Collector's office at Cuddalore. But now old and growing sick day by day with rheumatism, as it is shown by the Doctor's certificate herewith sent, and being in consequence unable to walk so long a journey, I am obliged to hire bandy out of so small a sum. Please therefore take into consideration the great sacrifice I suffer, and which is occasioned by the unfavorable circumstances.

3. As I am an inhabitant of Pondicherry, I most humbly beg your honor to order my pension to be transferred to the British Consular's Office at Pondicherry, and to allow me to draw it in my native place without any inconvenience.

4. This small act of charity will be for ever felt by me. Hoping that Your Honor will give a favorable solution to my distressed case,

I remain, &c.
