3rd May 1879, No. 189.

Gratuity.

Read the following papers:—

From F. C. PUCKLE, Esq., Deputy Superintendent, Revenue Survey in charge, to the Accountant-General, dated 29th October 1878, No. 3728—215.

I have the honor to transmit, for submission to Government, an application, accompanied by service book, for compensation gratuity on behalf of K. Venkatarathnam, lately an Assistant Computer of the Ganjam Detachment.

2. In explanation of the delay in the submission of the application, the Deputy Superintendent, No. 5 Party, reports, that information required was completely received from the Officer in charge of the Detachment only on the 14th instant.

From the Assistant to the Accountant-General, to the Superintendent, Madras Survey, dated Fort St. George, 6th February 1879, No. A.D.K.—29.

Audit Department.

Vide your application for gratuity on behalf of K. Venkatarathnam, late Assistant Computer, Ganjam Detachment, No. 5, Revenue Survey.

The undersigned has the honor to inquire—

(1.) Why the claim for gratuity on behalf of the applicant was not preferred on the 1st November 1876 when he appears to have lost his appointment in consequence of a reduction of establishment?

(2.) Whether any saving to Government was effected in consequence of the abolition of the appointment referred to above; if so, how much?

(3.) Why the applicant was recommended for the grant of a gratuity calculated on Rupees 15, the amount of pay of his lost appointment, instead of on Rupees 18, the pay of that which he held before a similar reduction in November 1876? Vide Section 51 of the Civil Pension Code.

(4.) Please forward to this office a copy of the authority from Government under which the applicant's appointment was abolished in November 1876.

(Signed) H. S. GROVES,
Asst. to the Accountant-General.

From F. C. PUCKLE, Esq., Deputy Superintendent, Madras Survey, to the Assistant Accountant-General, dated Madras, 25th February 1879, No. 35-A.

Reference Memorandum of the 6th instant, No. A.D.K.—29, calling for certain explanation in connection with the application for gratuity on behalf of late Assistant Computer K. Venkatarathnam.

Has the honor to return the Memorandum and to append replies to questions seriatim:—

(1.) In November 1876 Venkatarathnam did not apply for his gratuity but received back his service book with a view to seek employment elsewhere.

(2.) There was a saving to Government of Rupees 18 per mensem in consequence of the applicant's discharge.

(3.) As he was not entitled again to a gratuity for his service of only three months and twenty-eight days after his re-entertainment as required by Section 51, his pay at the time of his last discharge was calculated under Section 69 of the Civil Pension Code.

(4.) The applicant's services were dispensed with on receipt of G.O., No. 1449, of the 11th August 1876, communicating the Resolution of the Government of India impressing the necessity for retrenchment and economy.

Public Department.

No. A.D.J.—70.

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL.

Certified that qualifying service in superior grades has been duly proved for nine years and twenty-two days; and that a compensation gratuity not exceeding Rupees 135, equal to nine months' pay of the applicant, is admissible under Sections 50 and 59 (a) of the Civil Pension Code. The calculations have been duly verified.

2. With reference to Rule 1 under Section 50 of the Code the Deputy Superintendent reports that the applicant is old, lame, and of bad sight, and consequently unfit for active service either in office or field; and with reference to Rule 5 of the same section, he states that the amount of saving to Government effected in consequence of the abolition of the appointment held by the applicant is Rupees 15 per mensem.

3. It will be seen from the Register of Application that the applicant was thrown out of employ in consequence of reduction of establishment in November 1876, and had an application for gratuity been preferred on his behalf on that occasion, he would have been entitled to a compensation gratuity of Rupees 144 for his then qualifying service extending over a period of eight years. But the Superintendent of Revenue Survey recommends that he should be granted a gratuity of only Rupees 135. Under these circumstances, it rests with Government to decide whether the higher rate of gratuity should be granted to him under the provisions contained in Section 51 of the Civil Pension Code.

4. The cause of delay in the submission of this application is explained by the Superintendent of Revenue Survey in his letter, No. 3728—215, of the 29th October last, herewith transmitted.

THE undersigned has the honor to Enquire

Why the Claim for Gratuity on behalf of the applicant was not preferred on the 1st November 1876 when he appears to have lost his appointment in Consequence of a reduction of Establishment.

Whether any saving to Government was effected in Consequence of the abolition of the appointment referred to above. If so how much.

Why the applicant was recommended for the grant of a gratuity calculated on Rs 15 the amount of pay of his lost appointment instead of on Rs 18 the pay of that which he held before a similar reduction in November 1876 Vide Section 51 of the Civil Pension Code.

Please forward to this office a copy of the Authority from Government under which the applicant's appointment was abolished in November 1876.
