CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL.

CERTIFIED that (~~subject to the remarks below recorded~~) qualifying service in { ~~inferior~~ superior } grades has been duly proved for 25 years 10 months and 14 days; and that an Invalid { pension ~~gratuity~~ } not exceeding Rs. 112-8- per mensem, equal to one half of the applicant's average Emoluments is admissible under Sections 52 & 59(C) of the Civil Pension Code. The calculations have been duly verified.

In support of the application for Pension on behalf of the applicant the Collector forwarded to this Office a medical certificate bearing date the 26th August 1878 which was signed by only one Medical Officer. The certificate was returned to the Collector in view to its being countersigned by the Surgeon Genl. as required by clause (d) of section 53 of the Civil Pension Code as the amount of Pension which the applicant is entitled to is more than Rupees 100 per mensem. The Collector has accordingly submitted a fresh certificate signed by the Surgeon General and bearing a more recent date. The Certificate is herewith transmitted.

It is observed that the applicant whose pay was in excess of R^s 100 a month was granted 2 months Privilege leave with effect from the 22nd July 1878 without being required to furnish the declaration prescribed by rule 1 section 32 of the Civil Leave Code and G. I N° 448 dated 24th January 1878, that while on this leave he submitted to the Collector a Medical Certificate pronouncing him incapacitated for further service; and that the Collector thereupon permitted the applicant to retire from the service. To these facts the attention of Government is respectfully solicited. Vide para 2 of the Collector's reply to this Office Memo N° adk/165 of the 19th December 1878 herewith forwarded.

Certified that I have personally examined A. D. Venkataramanier, son of Neelakanta Sastriyal, a Tahsildar in the Tanjore District. His age is by his own statement 52 years, and by appearance about 56 years. I consider A. D. Venkataramanier to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further Service of any kind in the Department to which he belongs in consequence of General Debility and Chronic Cough. He is also prematurely old. His incapacity does not appear to me to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits.

Tahsildar.

POINT CALIMERE, 13th July 1861

Venkatramanier has given me satisfaction since I arrived at Mayaveram in September 1859. He is well qualified for Cirkar business, being industrious and intelligent and took much trouble for some months in last year in sorting and putting into order the records of my office which were very Voluminous and in much confusion. He also has had much practice in both Revenue and Magisterial work and is equally fit for transacting business in either.

(Signed,) G. L. MORRIS,
Sub-Collector.

(Signed,) G. L. MORRIS,
Sub-Collector.

TRANQUEBAR, 7th September 1862.

Venkatramanier has been employed as Head Clerk in the Head Assistant's Office since July 1861. I took charge of the Office in January 1862 and from that time to this I have had every reason to be satisfied with the way he has performed his duties; he is extremely industrious and has experience in both Revenue and Magisterial business. I have great confidence in his honesty and recommend him to the favourable consideration of my successor.

(Signed,) C. G. PLUMER,
Acting Head Assistant Collector.

NEGAPATAM, 16th February 1864.

Vankatramanier has been the Head Clerk of the Head Assistant's Office since I took charge in September 1862. I have thus had him under my notice for nearly 18 Months. I have great pleasure in bearing witness to the good Character given to him by my predecessors. He is very industrious and bore the burden of the hard worked Office whilst at Negapatam to the neglect of his own interests in passing the Special Test Examination. I have much enjoyed working with him, having always found him respectful, attentive and assiduous.

(Signed,) A. R. HUTCHINS,
Acting Head Assistant Collector.

COMBACONUM, 4th October 1864.

I have been in charge of the Head Assistant's Office for 11 months during all which time Venkatramanier had been the Head Clerk and I have pleasure in adding my testimony to that of Mr. Morris, Plumer, and Hutchins to the very painstaking and intelligent manner in which he performs his duties. In the course of my experience I have had no ground to believe him any thing but strictly honest. The assistance he has given me in my work has been invaluable.

(Signed,) JAMES HOPE
Assistant Collector.

March 1865.

Now officiating Sub-Magistrate of Combaconum, a smart Javabnavis; but I do not think much of his aptitude or fitness for the post of Sub-Magistrate even though he has passed the Examination for a Tahsildar.

(Signed,) W. M. CADELL, Collector.

TRANQUEBAR, 5th June 1866.

I have known Venkatramanier for four (4) months while he was employed as theCombaconum TownSub-Magistrate. He gave me the greatest satisfaction during this time and I am quite able to say that he is the best Sub-Magistrate by far that I have met. He is very intelligent and hard working and quite trustwortny. I consider him a very superior man in every way.

(Signed,) A. C. BURNELL,
Assistant Collector of Tanjore.

22nd October, 1866.

Venkatramanier has been so short a time Sheristadar that I have nothing to add to the opinion I expressed about him in 1864 when Acting Head Assistant Collector. He has for three months acted as Tahsildar for Nannilam and has by his industry and capacity shown himself capable of Managing a Taluq.

(Signed,) A. R. HUTCHINS,
Sub-Collector.

4th March, 1867.

I have only been acquainted with Venkatramanier for two months. He has much experience. I think he is trustworthy. As a Tahsildar, I believe he would occupy the position for which he is best fitted.

(Signed,) G. VANS AGNEW,
Sub-Collector.

29th June, 1867.

It is unnecessary for me to add any thing respecting the character and qualification of Venkatramanier Sheristadar of this office to what has been said by my predecessors whose remarks I fully concur.

(Signed,) J. C. HUGHESDON,
Acting Sub-Collector.

15th April, 1868.

Having been in charge of this office only a month, I cannot pretend to know all about the subordinates attached to it. I can, however, say that I have been perfectly satisfied with Venkatramanier. He is now proceeding to take up his appointment as Acting Tahsildar of Tritrapoondy in which post I have no doubt he will prove himself not unworthy of the Collector's nomination.

(Signed,) J. W. BEST,
Acting Sub-Collector.

MADRAS, 22nd June 1871.

Venkatramanier, Tahsildar of Puttucottah, is a good Revenue Officer, but does not bear so high a character as a Magisterial Officer. He is a careful man and has earned a moderately fair character for honesty.

(Signed,) G. L. MORRIS,
Collector of Tanjore.

TANJORE, 23rd March 1873.

Venkatramanier now 2nd Class Sub-Magistrate and Tahsildar of Tritrapoondy. I have known since the year 1853 when I joined the Sub-Collector's Office. He was lately promoted by me from the Tahsildar-ship of Puttucottah and in which Office he had proved himself both able and efficient. I trust he will continue to maintain his good character and that his future career will be marked by integrity as well as by ability.
