Certified that (subject to the remarks below recorded) qualifying service in {inferior superior} grades has been duly proved for 29 years 2 months and 21— days; and that a "leave taken" { suspension } not exceeding Rs. 36/- is admissible under Section 65(b) of the Civil Pension Code. The calculations have been duly verified.

It will be seen from the Collector's reply to their Office Memo No. 879 dated the 10th ultimus, transmitted herewith, that the Income Tax Officer has reported that the applicant got dismissed from the Service on the 11th November 1916, in consequence of which he forfeited his past services amounting to 6 years 2 months and 5 days, were for committing offences of a nature which could have been disposed of by a fine, and which would not now attract disqualification — Should Government therefore be pleased to consider the above explanation together with certain other observations of the Collector, given in the above document, to condone the break in the continuity of the applicant's service, by having the period of 10 months and 20 days (during which he was out of employ in consequence of the above dismissal) as period spent under suspension the applicant will then be allowed the benefit of his former service in qualifying for pension, provided that when removed to 35 years i.e. + 26 days, entitling him to an Annual Pension of Rs. 200 per annum under Section 65(b) of the Code. But the grant of such Pension will have to be reported to the Government of India for confirmation.

Reply.

Para 1 The inclusion of the service, prior to dismissal, was the result of an oversight in the Treasury Dy Collector's office, which escaped detection when the application was prepared. It will be observed that it is stated in the order of reappointment (Vide Mr. Treasie's Letter) that the period during which the applicant was out of employment was "in itself an adequate punishment". It certainly does not say that this period was to be considered to have been passed under suspension, but it is to be remembered that in 1847, peons and other servants of Government were dismissed for offences, which would not now involve suspension, and that there was not then the strictness, which now exists, in regard to the actual wording of orders. The offence for which the man was turned out was apparently one of the most petty kind, so much do

so that instead of being recommended for dismissal, the punishment suggested by the subordinate officer was merely a fine.

If the administration of the Pension Code calls for the strict application of the letter of the Rules, the applicant is entitled to a gratuity only. The case is a hard one.

Para II. The acquittance Rolls of the Poonamallee Talug show that the applicant received full pay for the whole of the month of October 1847. He must therefore be held to have been reappointed on and from the 1st of that month.

Para III. The omission pointed out, has been rectified.

To Hamumajee Rao.

When I visited this place
I found that of the Tannah Peons Iyulu Naiken and Munusawmy Naiken attached to the Poonamallee Tannah, the latter had been out on duty under orders, that he had just returned, and that the former Iyulu Naiken has been careless in the discharge of his work. I have suspended him for 6 months.

You had better there-fore appoint a fit man in his stead and take work from him.

I have read your Arzi N^o 105 dated 10th Instant stating that peon Kunchee Kristnama Naidu on a salary of one pagoda, requests to have his cousin Gyula Naidu appointed in his stead, as he is unable through illness to perform his duties; that the said Gyula Naidu, a Tannah Peon, was once dismissed though recommended for fine, for neglect of duty in not having brought to notice the fact of ^{the} drowning of a washerman named Vurden; that his having been out of employ up to date is taking into consideration his former and usual activity in the discharge of his duties in itself an adequate punishment and that therefore he may be appointed instead of Kristnama Naidu as per his Rajeenamah. I have, as recommended by you, appointed and herewith sent Gyula Naidu, after advising him to be more careful in future in the discharge discharge of his duties. You will therefore enter his name in the pay sheet and take work from him.

PROCEEDINGS of the MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following letter

From the Collector of Chingleput dated 30th September 1878 Offg Dy Assistant General dated 22nd November 1878 ^{N^o 160}

Order thereon 9th May 1879 N^o 223

Applicant is made for the grant of an invalid pension to G. Arjulu Naidu late a Peon in the Saidapet Taluk Chingleput District.

2. The applicant entered the public service in September 1840 as a peon, but in November 1846 he was dismissed by the Collector of Chingleput. The order of dismissal is not forthcoming but from the order of re-appointment it appears that the applicant was dismissed for neglect of duty for which the Collector considered the period passed by the applicant without employment to be an adequate punishment and

and accordingly in October 1847, after an interval of only about 10 months and 20 days re-employed ^{him} in a post similar to that from which he had been removed.

3. The period during which Ayala Naidu was out of employ will therefore be treated as passed under suspension in accordance with the principle approved by the Government of India (vide letter in October 1875 No 3873) and he is granted an invalid pension of Rs 3/3 per mensem payable from the 21st June 1877 for his qualifying inferior service of thirty five years four months and twenty six days.
