3. Regarding any gratuity or pension already received by Applicant. See Chapter XX.

We state that he was a private in the 50th Madras M. The number of years in the receipt being in excess of that allowed by the law in relation to the breaking up of the Detachment in company of his services not being received elsewhere he was discharged in the Detachment of 20 Madras M. I. in the year 1877.

He claims to have been discharged as C. 6. 0. 0 per annum.
