We have the honor to forward the accompanying printed form of application for gratuity on behalf of Coluppencherry Moorogappa Moodelly, late Pankah-puller, duly filled up, together with his service book.

No. 409.

Referred to the Accountant-General for the usual verification and report.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

From H. S. GROVES, Esq., Assistant to the Accountant-General, to the Chief Clerk of the Madras Court of Small Causes, dated Fort St. George, 21st February 1879, No. A.D.K.—46.
Audit Department.

File your application for gratuity on behalf of C. Moorogappa Moodelly, late Pankah-puller of your Court.

The undersigned has the honor to inquire—

- (1.) Whether the appointment held by the applicant, from 1st February to 30th November 1860, as acting Pankah-puller was permanently vacant, and whether anybody but the applicant counted service in it during that time.
- (2.) Why the name of the applicant was omitted from the annual return of peons (menial servants) submitted to this office for the year 1870; and why the several rates of pay drawn by the inferior servants employed on the Court's establishment were not shown in the 1st April returns.

The register of application is herewith returned with a request that it may be certified, under the head of "Any other Remarks" in the third page thereof, that the applicant has been found inefficient owing to age or infirmity, as required by Rule 3 under Section 56 of the Civil Pension Code. The application should be resubmitted to this office together with information as to whether there was any precedent like the case under verification, the retiring allowance of which is regulated by the provision of the Civil Pension Code.

The applicant's service book is also returned herewith in order that the closing entry therein may be attested by the Head of the office and the book retransmitted to this office at an early date.

ENCLOSURE No. 2.

From J. M. MASKELL, Esq., Clerk of the Court of Small Causes, Madras, to the Accountant-General, dated Madras, 14th March 1879, No. 270.

The undersigned has the honor to return his memorandum, No. A.D.K.—46, dated 21st February 1879, and to reply as follows:—

(1.) The appointment held by the applicant from 1st February to 30th November 1869 was permanently vacant, and no other person but the applicant counted service during that time. Owing to contemplated changes in the establishment of this Court in 1869, all appointments made during that year were styled nominally "acting."

(2.) The omission of the applicant's name in the nominal roll of menial servants for the year 1870 was a mistake on the part of this office. It was thought unnecessary to enter the several rates of pay drawn by the menial servants in the nominal roll of menial servants as they were given in the detailed lists. Revised lists of menial servants for the years 1870 to 1878 are herewith submitted.

(3.) The necessary insertion in the third page of the Service Register of application has been made. There has been no precedent. The case under notice is the first of the kind.

(4.) The necessary attestation of the closing entry in the applicant's service book has been made.

Certificate and Report of Accountant-General, No. A.D.J.—103.

Certified that qualifying service in inferior grades has been duly proved for nine years, ten months, and nine days, and that an invalid gratuity not exceeding Rupees 15, equal to three months' pay, is admissible under Sections 53 and 65 (a) of the Civil Pension Code. The calculations have been duly verified.
